

GERMAN SHIP ARRIVES

First Merchant Steamship
Flying German Flag to
Come to N. Y. Since 1914

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The first merchant steamship flying the German flag to come to New York since July 1914, arrived here today.

The vessel, which marks the resumption of trade with Germany under the flag of that country was the Sophie Riekmers, a steamer of 4893 tons built in Germany during the war. She is flying the old German merchant marine flag.

She was retained by the Germans under the provision of the armistice regulations which permitted that country to keep such vessels as were under construction and not 50 per cent. completed, when the war ended. She is assigned to the Kerr Steamship Co. as American agents. The ship is in ballast and will take cargo here for the return voyage. Her captain and crew are Germans.

FRANKLIN PENNY

One of the First Copper Coins to be Authorized by Congress Has Been Found in Dover

DOVER, Mass., Nov. 4.—A Franklin penny, the first copper coin to be authorized by congress, has been found on the homestead of one of the first settlers here. It was struck in 1787 and is one of a few that were coined. The penny took its name from Benjamin Franklin because of the inclusion in its design of the homely admonition "Mind your business" after a suggestion by him that coins should serve purposes other than those of legal tender.

On one side 13 circles appear. In the center, a small circle in the middle with the word "United States" around it, and in the center "We are one." On the other side is a dial with the hours indicated, a meridian sun above it, on one side of which is the word "Fugio" and on the other the date "1787." Below the dial appears the Franklin phrase "Mind your business."

Next Mon., Tues., Wed.—"Hammocks" at the Merrimack Square.

TO MAKE PEACE WITH GERMANY

Lodge Says Harding Will Move for an Agreement
of Nations

Outlines G. O. P. Program—
Coolidge Also Speaks at
"Jubilation Luncheon"

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Peace with Germany, followed by some sort of an agreement—not an alliance—to preserve the peace of the world, will be among the first acts of President-elect Harding, according to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's assurance yesterday afternoon at a "Jubilation" luncheon and reunion in the Boston City club at which Vice President-elect Coolidge was the chief guest.

Senator Lodge accompanied this assurance with the denunciation of the present national administration, in which he charged waste and extravagance, and promised his listeners that the incoming administration would not remedy these alleged conditions, but that it would remove the defects of the present tax laws and revise the tariff. His remarks were accorded repeated demonstrations by a gathering of nearly 1000 members who filled every available space in the dining hall and balcony.

"We have won a victory of proportion so large that I confess I can't grasp it," said Senator Lodge. "It is distinctly an American victory. We furnished the instrument and organization as in the Civil war and in the fight against free silver. When you consider that the republican party carried Boston by over 30,000, and New York by over 400,000, you can see what wide support the party drew to itself."

"We shall not bring any millennium to the country. We don't promise it. One thing we can do is to bring the government back to its constitutional form and limitations under which we have lived and progressed for over 100 years. We can remedy the present tax laws and we can revise the tariff so that duty on imports will be made to pay for some of the taxes which they don't do now."

"We are the most generous people in the world. Generous as we are, we did not look with closeness upon the expenditures made by the department and that generosity was taken advantage of. The extravagance and waste of money which prevailed not only during the war but since it ended, must come to an end. And that, I assure you, will be done."

SAYS ONLY ONE SURE WAY
TO END PILES FOREVER

Internal Treatment Gives Absolute
Relief from all Pain and Suffering
Has Never Failed to Effect a
Cure—Guaranteed

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations also do not remove the cause, but simply the formation.

This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years' standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice, and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. Fred Howard sells it on the money-back if dissatisfied plan.—Adv.

and remove what is technically a state of war.

"Lastly, we have brought to an end the attempt to enter into the League of Nations which Mr. Wilson brought back from Paris. That is not the only league that can be made to promote the peace of the world. One of the duties of Mr. Harding will be to draw up an agreement looking to the preservation of the peace of the world. Call it 'entente,' 'association' or what you will—not an alliance."

"Remember, these things can't be done in a moment. You must be patient. One of the difficulties of Mr. Wilson's league is that it was finally drafted in 30 hours."

"We have no obligations at all. We gave men and money. We asked nothing when the peace councils assembled and we got nothing. We are ready to give, but to retain the right to say what we shall give, when we shall give and where we shall give."

Referring to Vice-President-elect Coolidge, Senator Lodge stated that his "wise and courageous action of last year" had made his name known throughout the country. He expressed confidence that the new vice-president will guide the debates in the senate with the capacity of intelligence he has shown in every office he has held.

The remarks of the senior senator were greeted with applause and laughter, when he declared Governor Coolidge will be relieved of the duty of casting a deciding vote in the senate, because that branch of congress will have a majority of 16 or 18 republican members.

The speaking program of the "Jubilation" gathering was opened by George H. Ellis, president of the City club.

Mr. Ellis stated that the people have a right to expect of Governor Coolidge more than of previous vice-presidents. "As we understand," he said, "Mr. Harding intends to make him a member of the firm of Harding and Coolidge."

Coolidge Speaks

The introduction of Governor Coolidge as the next speaker was the signal for a demonstration lasting several minutes. He said in part:

"I don't know how I can explain the results of yesterday's election. It is of such enormous character that no one can fully comprehend it. It was an exhibition of a surprising unanimity on the part of the American people—a desire to take hold of their own government, take a hand in running it and having something to say about it in addition to making out tax returns and paying taxes. This last was greeted with a round of laughter."

"Our people have been patient under the conditions of the last few years. They do not like intermeddling of their affairs."

The election resulted in the recognition of the fundamentals of our constitution. Of course, America expects to play her part among the nations of the earth, but to play it in a broad, rather than in a narrow and provincial way.

"Our splendid leader, Senator Harding, is marked with a splendid character. As he is open-minded and takes counsel, so he wants the American people to be open-minded and take counsel."

Governor-elect Cox, who is also a member of the club, spoke briefly, expressing the hope that he will justify the trust placed in him and his party. Included in the "Jubilation" gathering were many democrats. At the head table was John Jackson Walsh, defeated democratic candidate for governorship. In a brief address he pointed to the majority given to the republican candidates in Boston and urged fair play for the Hub in legislative matters. He lauded Vice-President-elect Coolidge and was given an ovation when he declared that the majority of the people wished and thereby co-operation should follow.

Governor Coolidge was escorted to the City club from the state house, by members of the club, several hundred strong. The march down Beacon Hill, headed by a band, caused cheers from a crowd gathered along the route for the newly elected vice-president.

Besides the speakers, those seated at the guests' table included Alvan T. Fuller, Lieutenant-Governor-elect; Jas. Jackson, state treasurer; J. Weston Allen, attorney general; Frank B. Hall, chairman of the state republican committee; Senator Frank Allen, George S. Smith, former president of the club, and C. H. Thurber, first vice-president. At the table facing the guest of honor were Congressman Winslow, Lufkin, Dallinger and Tuce. Members of the governor's council occupied another table.

CLUBMAN MURDERED IN NEW YORK HOTEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A murder mystery baffling in motive, last night confronted the police investigating the death of Leeds Vaughn Waters, wealthy clubman of London and New York, found early yesterday in a room in the Plymouth hotel here.

Death resulted from a fractured skull caused, police believe, from blows from Waters' own cane, wielded by a man who accompanied him to the hotel Tuesday night, and who rushed into the room still carrying the walking stick a few seconds before the body was found. He left, his clues upon which the police are working, finger prints on a mirror in the room and the name "James Dunn, Milwaukee," upon the hotel register.

Waters, registered at the hotel as "J. Talbot, Milwaukee." At that time, police say, he carried a gold-topped cane, and in his pockets had a gold watch, a gold cigarette case, a silver match box and some money. He also wore a diamond ring valued at $2000. The cane and money are missing.

Waters was the son of the late Horace Waters of East Greenwich, R. I., former wealthy piano manufacturer. He had been living with his mother in a Bronxville hotel since Oct. 26, when Mrs. Waters left East Greenwich to give her companionship to her son. It was stated at the hotel last night that he was absent Tuesday night for the first time since his arrival.

Waters was a member of the Columbia University chapter, Delta Kappa Epsilon. It was stated here that he kept coming and coming right toward him, so then he knew it must be real, and that something most awfully good to cut must be causing that smell. Could it be the picnic baskets full of goodies? No, he decided not, for there weren't any baskets to be seen. You remember, don't you, that

Tag Tortle was late about bringing the. Then he noticed that the good smell only came when the wind was blowing from a certain direction. When the wind stopped the smell ever the wind stopped, and the minute the wind started to blow, there was that grand smell again.

So he decided to use his eyes, and when they played their jumping game he looked as far as he could see. Suddenly his heart gave a great bound. What was that white sea of blossoms waving beyond the pond? Then the smell came again and he knew. BUCKWHEAT!

DR. ZAYAS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CUBA

HAVANA, Nov. 4.—(By Associated Press).—Dr. Alfredo Zayas has been elected president of Cuba. This is based on returns received by the government from three-fourths of the voting precincts.

The figures announced yesterday by the department of communications gave Zayas, the nominee of the old conservative or coalition party, a lead of approximately 12,000 over Gen. Jose M. Gomez, liberal.

It was the defeat four years ago of Zayas as a liberal that led Gomez, who supported him to revolt and attempt to wrest the government from President Menocal, now serving his second term. There is little fear here of another revolution, Gen. Gomez having declared that in the event of fraud he would appeal to the United States to annul the election.

Reports to the war department showed 11 persons killed and eight wounded on election day, a record much below the average.

MARSH HILL ROAD

The sum of $3000 was appropriated at a special meeting of the voters of Dracut field in Orange, N. J., Tuesday night, for the reconstruction of Marsh Hill road. The sum was made for a period of four years, the annual payments to be $750.

Here Is a Fine Laxative For a Little Baby

Millions of Mothers find Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for infants

WHAT young mother has not often asked herself the question, "What is the best thing I can give my baby for constipation?" It is a very important question, as constipation is the basis of most ills of infancy and childhood.

Give half a teaspoonful of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. You can obtain it at any drug store under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild, gentle medicine that children willingly take, and a bottle that costs only sixty cents is enough to last an average family several months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been used by millions of mothers, for the prescription has been sold in drug stores for thirty years. It is the same prescription Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is now in his 82nd year, used in his extensive practice for half a century. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Last year eight million bottles were bought in drug stores. You can make no mistake in giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to your baby.

MUSIC LESSONS IN THE SCHOOLS

In order to enable Lowell school children to develop their musical ability at a minimum cost, the music committee of Lowell Community Service will soon begin a music course on the piano and violin to be held after school hours in public school buildings. Trained teachers will direct the classes. Miss Gertrude O'Brien will be general supervisor of the piano classes and Mrs. Edward McKean of the violin classes. The project has been approved by the local school authorities.

The following regulations will govern the conduct of these classes:

1. These classes shall be held in such school buildings as may be designated by the superintendent and shall be under the joint direction of the supervisor of music and the chairman of the music committee of Lowell Community Service.
2. These classes shall be only for beginners between the ages of 7 and 11 inclusive who have an opportunity to practice on a piano outside of school and who have reached at least the third grade.
3. The classes shall meet weekly directly after school for not more than an hour nor less than 15 minutes.
4. There is to be a charge of 20 cents a lesson, to be paid in advance a month at a time. These fees shall go to the teacher, except occasional incidental expenses.
5. In choosing teachers for the piano classes, members of the regular teaching staff of the city shall be given preference and shall satisfy the directors as to pianistic qualifications and ability to interest children.
6. No teacher shall admit to her class a pupil who has studied with a private pupil during the school year, a pupil whom she has had in a public school after-school piano class.
7. No teacher shall buy or sell to her pupils at personal profit, any music or accessories. It is recommended that all music be bought through the local music dealers.

The following regulations will govern the after-school violin classes:

1. Violin classes may number up to 20 pupils. Price, 20 cents per lesson.
2. The classes shall be taught by persons especially trained for this work. All violin class teaching shall be under the direction of the directors.
3. The regular regulations above except No. 5, will apply to the violin classes as well as to the piano classes. Note: The keyboard charts for use in piano classes have been furnished through the courtesy of Richard O'Connell. Arrangements will be made to furnish complete violin outfits at a minimum price.

BOY CHESS WONDER ARRIVES IN AMERICA

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A little boy in a brown overcoat and a brown study, a very grave little boy, who is supposed to be composed chiefly of brain, was among the first half dozen passengers to leave the White Star liner Olympic when it arrived here yesterday from Southampton.

With his hands sunk deep in his pockets, his legs apart, he stood and tilted his chin to gaze upon New York city, while a portion of New York city gazed with even greater interest at him.

For he was Samuel Reshevsky, 9 years old, the chess wonder of Europe, the child who plays 20 or 30 or 40 games of chess simultaneously against the strongest players that can be gathered to oppose him—and beats them casually.

The child is traveling with all the pomp of a visiting prize fighter. He is accompanied by his parents, his private physician and his manager, and before long he will be giving exhibitions in New York, although his program has not yet been announced.

Young as he is, he has been playing chess for four years. When he was 5 years old his father, one day evening taught him the most of the intricacies, and on the next evening it was the boy who was teaching his father, giving his parent the best kind of instruction, which is a beating.

Since then he has beaten the strong club players of the European capitals, and expert critics who have studied the last recorded games, declare that even the masters of the game, winners of national championships, could not give odds to the child—at least not greater odds than pawn and move.

AGAINST SOVIET GOVERNMENT

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The first congress of shop societies recently held here refused to go on record as favoring the soviet government of Russia. There was a sharp clash between the communists and independent socialists over the question but the motion was voted down. About 1000 delegates attended the meeting.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Senator Harding has been triumphantly elected to the presidency and anybody else nominated by the republican party would have met with equal success. He will have a heavy responsibility to shoulder after March 4 next; but, as he has said, he will draw upon the party leaders for advice and doubtless they will all be ready to aid him in that respect.

The republicans are now in control of congress and provided Senator Newberry does not take a vacation, they will be able to dispose of many of the great problems of reconstruction now awaiting consideration even in the session opening in December. The republicans will have an opportunity to deal with the soldiers' bonus bill without jeopardizing their political chances in any approaching election; and they will also have a chance to carry out their policies in putting the merchant marine in active operation in the channels of trade.

At present it is operating under a law which if enforced would result in international complications growing out of the annulment of numerous treaties with foreign nations. President Wilson has refused to put this particular section of the bill into operation and the matter is now in such an unsettled state that immediate action of some kind is needed in order to turn our vast fleet of merchant ships to our advantage in foreign commerce.

We have been wrangling over the League of Nations to the neglect of domestic questions of the greatest moment which are now awaiting attention. It would not be surprising to find the republicans favoring the League of Nations gradually until the sentiment becomes general that we should adopt the covenant with slight changes or reservations.

Nobody has regarded the republican party as sincere in its condemnation of the League of Nations. Most of the opposition has been political and now that nothing is to be gained by carrying the opposition further, and that there is no acceptable substitute in sight, the republican president and even some of the grave and reverend senators will wiggle and wobble until they ratify the league with reservations differing but little from those favored by Senator Lodge. And when the name of Lodge is mentioned, it may be remarked that few men in this country exclusive of the victorious candidates, have more reason to rejoice over the republican victory. It is a great vindication for his attitude on the League of Nations. It is equally a vindication for Senator David L. Walsh, who lay low during the campaign, refusing to take an active part in support of the democratic ticket.

The great republican majorities given by such cities as Boston and New York indicate that the citizens of Irish extraction voted in great volume for the republican party.

The victory offers unmistakable evidence that the republican party received the vote of all classes opposed to the League of Nations in any form, and also of those who while favoring a league of some kind do not favor the league as President Wilson would have it.

We venture to predict, however, that all these people will be disappointed by the republican party which we surmise will ratify the league in short order after assuming control of the government on March 4.

There will then be quite a few people in this country who will fully realize the application of the following lines: "But what good came of it at last?" Quoth little Peterkin.

"Why that I cannot tell," said he, "But 'twas a famous victory."

NOT ALL SMOOTH SAILING

We doubt if anyone is disposed to cast a damper on such joy as the republicans can extract from their sweeping victory in state and nation. If success at the polls, far beyond the dreams of the most sanguinary, is a cause for shouting peans of joy, surely the G.O.P.s have that cause in superabundance.

It is a peculiar fact that many of the adherents of the party in this part of the world seem to be taking the joy that has come to them with somewhat wary faces. Mr. Harding, many are ready to admit, is not all that might be wished for in the way of a president-elect. The local G.O.P.s, however, are not worrying so much about what the Ohio man may do, to upset the nation or set it upon the steady road of progress when he reaches Washington, as they are over intimate problems that face them at home. After all, the national government is a long way off, and there are not so very many federal offices that can be used to build up the party machine. "Let us run the state government in our own behalf, and that of the interests that we represent, and we care not who rules the rest of the world," is the motto of the state leaders.

The leaders have ample reason to feel that they will find a willing and docile servant to obey their commands in Chandler Cox. He has never yet shown a disposition to kick over the traces albeit we can see that it must have sometimes been rather unpleasant even to a man of his political standards to carry through some of the tasks that have been assigned to him.

There is a fly in the ointment of republican contentment, however, and it bears a startling resemblance to Alvan T. Fuller. Mr. Fuller has demonstrated that he has ideas of his own, and that the influences that can be brought to bear to keep an ordinary seer for parliament for G.O.P. honors in order are not potent in his case. In a word, Mr. Fuller has completely kicked over the republican kettle of

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Honest John" McCuskey is gone and his passing opens up the door to a new memory. For Mr. McCuskey had come into Lowell 50 years ago, when it was then a little village and long before most of its present residents dreamed of locating there.

His store on River street, now Lakeview avenue, was a place of activity. For years in the old days when Lynn beach was popular with Lowell folk, Mr. McCuskey spent his annual vacation there with unerring regularity. Later he went to Old Orchard, where he was a regular visitor a year ago, and where he was struck with illness. He stayed at the New Palmer house and was the idol of all who knew him there. He was most engaging in conversation and when his mind ran back over the years, he was a veritable fountain of information on Centralville topics. He had the gift of wit, loved the company of others, and in his quiet, unobtrusive way seemed to hold friends with his manner of leading the grave with the gay.

The death of an old resident like Mr. McCuskey causes one to reflect on the changes that have come about in a lifetime. Twenty-five years ago St. Michael's parish published a souvenir book on its progress and among the cuts in the volume were those of 17 people prominent in the affairs of the parish at that time. When I read the book, seven of these people had passed away and Mr. McCuskey was the eighth. Some of the others, now deceased, were Hon. William F. Courtney, Rev. Daniel P. Scannell, Charles Callahan and Thomas J. Henry. The march of time surely makes changes and nowhere is it more evident than in a company of men whose minds run back 25 or 30 years. Mr. McCuskey could tell of many things that happened 50 years ago and blessed as he was with a retentive memory, he will be sorely missed from the circles in which he was wont to travel.

Few of the grocers are now in business who were active when Mr. McCuskey first ventured forth from the store of the late Charles Callahan. Orrin B. Randlett is perhaps the dean of Lowell grocers, active, hale and hearty, a splendid type of capable business man. J. M. Wilson is another. Michael Corbett is still living but retired from active business. Charles Eskrine is in the real estate business and others like Horace E. and P. P. Silles have passed away.

A pitiful story was brought out in police court Tuesday morning in connection with a charge of larceny against a Boston girl. She pleaded guilty to stealing a $300 fur coat and a dress. According to her story she was living in this city with a man to whom she was not married, and on the night of the theft both left Lowell for Boston. Arriving in the North station the man left her to sell the coat and dress. He returned later with $50 in cash and then, according to the defendant's story, gave her just enough to pay her fare back to Lowell. He then disappeared and has not been seen since and she is being prosecuted for a crime for which she claims he was an accomplice. Apparently he made away with the stolen property and left his confiding "pal" in the lurch. The police may find him and if they do, it is safe to say that the man may fall upon him even more heavily than upon the woman he thus deceived and deserted. It has been said that there is honor even among thieves, but the man in this case seems to be an exception to the rule. The case goes to superior court and in the meantime the police will endeavor to find the man in the case.

Whatever may be our real feelings, I doubt if there is any other civilized nation in the world, the citizens of which are so negligent when it comes to paying respect to the national colors. It is not an uncommon thing to see the flag go past in a parade with only a small part of the heads of bystanders being bared as a tribute to which "Old Glory" is entitled from everyone. I was on the deck of a United States ship while ago. Some things in the past have happened to the flag mast, and a couple of young recruits had been assigned to the task of making necessary repairs. As the flag was hauled down, it was allowed to drop on the deck for a moment. An officer caught sight of the act, and was by the side of the men in an instant. The protest was made, summonsed, and the two men were clapped in the brig. "Brig" is the sailors' name for a shipboard prison. How long they remained there, I know not. I surmise, though, that the punishment was not of long duration, and was inflicted for the purpose of impressing upon the minds of the young men the importance of handling the symbol of all the nation stands for with due reverence. It is a rule in the navy that the flag must never be permitted to touch the deck of a vessel. It is an impressive sight at evening's close to see the flag being hoisted. As the sun begins to dip below the horizon, the band starts to play the national anthem, and slowly the hunting descends toward the deck. At the foot of the mast stands a sailor with a wide-mouthed bag. The moment that the edge of the flag comes within his reach, it is grasped and carefully guided into the receptacle. While the brief ceremony is going on, officers and men stand at attention.

One of the most pleasant of the annual features of election day in the Belvidere polling places is the visit of Peter H. Donohoe and his gift of flowers to the precinct officers on duty in that section of the city. Mr. Donohoe has a large garden in which many a rare botanical specimen has bloomed and during the summer months it presents a scene of real beauty with its mass of color and fragrance. On Tuesday Mr. Donohoe carried out his annual custom of distributing floral tokens to the men on duty seeing that ballots were properly cast and the flowers proved a bright spot in an otherwise bleak November day.

ARMISTICE DAY NOT A LEGAL HOLIDAY

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 4.—Notwithstanding a very general impression to the contrary, there is no authority for making Armistice day, Nov. 11, a legal holiday, and it will not be observed as such in Massachusetts this year.

Last year this day was made a legal holiday through a special act passed by the legislature. The act authorized the governor to select some day for observation as a holiday in commemoration of the signing of the war, and Gov. Coolidge decided that Nov. 11, the anniversary of the signing of the armistice, was the proper day to be so observed.

That special legislation, however, applied to last year only, and under it neither the governor nor any one else has the power to make Armistice day or any other a legal holiday this year. Officials of the American Legion, however, are determined that in future there shall be observation of the day, and they are preparing for presentation to the incoming legislature a bill making it a holiday every year.

Bravado of the preceding year to Thanksgiving, however, this bill is sure to meet with opposition from business interests, and it now appears likely that if the legion puts a real drive behind its bill the solons will have to give serious attention to the suggestion advanced last year that Thanksgiving day be observed always on Nov. 11.

This idea, in turn, will be opposed by many who think that Thanksgiving day must continue to be observed on the last Thursday in the month. History shows, however, that in the old days its date was generally much earlier, and that it was in fact a day devoted to the giving of thanks for harvest crops, usually following very shortly after the last harvest had been gathered.

WOMAN SUFFERED IN SILENCE

Health Poor, Beauty Fast Fading Away
---Made Believe She Was Well

A woman of New Auburn, (Me.), writes: "There must be lots of women who feel as I did. I suffered in silence many times on account of my pride, but now I know that a good laxative is essential to good health. I neglected my health trying to keep cheery and pretending I was all right when I wasn't. I had terrible pains, was 'grouchy' and my headaches almost killed me with pain, and worst of all from my viewpoint I had a sallow, unbecoming complexion which was not helped by face powders. Why didn't I try to cure myself rather than pretend? After taking Dr. True's Elixir, I now know that a laxative was what I needed. Dr. True's Elixir is mild and pleasant to take, and works just right for me. My complexion came up bright and healthy. 'Grouchy' vanished and every one remarked how much better I looked.'—Mrs. E. J. R., New Auburn, Me.

The root of many of the evils of sickness is the bowels, a very vital part of the body. A cold, a fever, diseases of the like can be helped at once, providing the operation of the bowels is normal—the first and most important relief can be had by giving a laxative, be sure it is the proper kind.

Most everybody in these days of quick action and strife, forget their health. The laboring people build down their means, often go to bed right after eating, and wake up in the morning restless, force down a breakfast and then are distressed all day.

An Outdoor Worker says: "I couldn't puzzle out what made me feel so bad. My good, home-cooked meals didn't even taste good, and I had headaches

"I NEVER FELT BETTER" SAYS PAYETTE, AT 76

Prominent New Bedford Citizen Tells His Experience With Tanlac for Benefit of Public—Health Restored

Still another Massachusetts man of wealth and prominence comes forward with his unqualified endorsement of Tanlac. This time it is Honore Payette, of 134 Tallmuth st., New Bedford.

Mr. Payette has been identified with business life in the Bay State for this past 50 years and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him. In describing his case and failure to heretofore find relief, Mr. Payette said:

"I am now 76 years of age and have never felt better, not even when a boy in school, than I do since taking Tanlac. My stomach has been in such a bad fix for the past year that at times I thought I would surely die from pain, but the way Tanlac has corrected my trouble and built me up is nothing short of wonderful. My appetite had left me entirely, and my stomach was so upset that I couldn't even bear the sight of food let alone eat. I was habitually constipated and the way I lost weight was alarming."

"I thought I would never be well any more, and was looking and feeling so bad that my family and friends were fearing my time for this world was getting short."

"One day I saw a Tanlac testimonial in a French Montreal paper and had my son send a telegram to Canada and order me some of the medicine."

"So we had four bottles sent to us and I felt good results by the time I had finished taking the first bottle. 'I have just now finished my third bottle and have no more pains than I there wasn't such a thing. And all, my, I eat like a wolf, just anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly.'"

"My sleep is so sound that my wife has a hard time getting me up for breakfast. I have gained back all the 15 pounds in weight I had lost and 10 pounds besides. So I am a better man physically now than I was even before my troubles started."

"I don't believe there's a medicine in the world in a class with Tanlac and I am glad to make this statement for what it may be worth to others who are needing a medicine in the world in a class with Tanlac and I am glad to make this statement for what it may be worth to others who are needing a medicine to help them back to health."

"Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Greens drug store, Merrimack square, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Further advances by the Bolshevik forces in their offensive against General Wrangel's troops in South Russia is reported in yesterday's official statement from the soviet war office in Moscow. REORGANIZATION OF NATIONAL GUARD

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The allocation of national guard regiments to the new England states under the plan by which they will form the first army corps was discussed today at a conference between Major General David C. Shanks, the corps commander, and the adjutants general of the several states. The conference was called by General Shanks in the interest of cooperation by the states in the federal plan for reorganization and as a means of working out the problems involved in the organization within each state of the regiments assigned to it.

CEMETERY BOARD

Commissioners Authorized to Arrange for Purchase of Truck for the Cemetery Department
The cemetery commissioners at their regular monthly meeting late yesterday afternoon authorized their chairman, William H. Rigby, to make arrangements with the purchasing agent for the purchase of a truck for use in the department. The chairman said that he and Mr. Pevey had put a certain type of truck costing $2355 through a severe test and found that it performed admirably. The commissioners approved monthly bills totaling $256.25. During the meeting it was stated that the trustees of the Old Ladies' Home have decided to purchase a tract comprising 10 lots in the Edison cemetery.

LIEUT. COL STEVENS REPLIES TO DUANE

Appos to the controversy relative to members of the Lowell post of the American Legion, charged by State Commander James T. Duane, with violating the legion regulation governing participation in politics, Lieut. Col. Stevens has sent the following letter to Mr. Duane:

Nov. 2, 1920.
Mr. James T. Duane, Commander, American Legion, Boston, Mass.

Sir: In the fifth congressional district the opposing candidates are both members of the American Legion. One of these candidates, Jackson Palmer, has seriously misrepresented his opponent, John Jacob Rogers, by stating at public places and in a campaign circular that Mr. Rogers agreed to vote for the bonus and then voted against the bonus. This statement is untrue. A number of Lowell ex-service men and members of the Lowell post of the American Legion, of whom I was one, therefore signed a circular appealing to the service men of the fifth congressional district to re-elect Congressman Rogers as the friend of the service man. As an ex-service man, I personally believe that Mr. Rogers has done as much for the service man as any member of congress. In support of which statement I refer you to the three letters quoted in the circular from prominent legion officials thanking Mr. Rogers for his efforts in behalf of the ex-service men and members of the legion. Two of the letters quoted are from your own adjutant at state headquarters.

The circular which we issued was signed by us as 12 individual citizens of the commonwealth of Massachusetts and not as ex-service members of the legion. We appeal to you, sir, whether you individually, as state commander of the legion, have a right to state that I have violated that constitution and to condemn me personally, or is it a prerogative of the state executive committee, of which you are but one member?

I have not yet received notice to appear before the executive committee for a hearing to which I believe I am entitled. Have not you, Mr. Commander, made a statement that I am guilty before my case is heard which has exactly the same effect as if a judge or a jury stated to the press that a man was guilty before he has been tried?

Furthermore, Mr. Commander, you have stated that "any congressman who does not support the legislation presented by this organization (referring to the bonus bill) cannot be termed a friend of the organization."

You have given this statement to the newspapers on the eve of the election. Are you not, in effect, asking the members of the legion in the fifth congressional district to vote against Congressman Rogers? Are you not, as state commander, taking part in politics as much as I?

Mr. Commander, if I have not the right, as a citizen of this commonwealth, to sign my name to a campaign circular in favor of any other good citizen and to admit in the body of the circular that I am a member of the American Legion, as I might also have admitted that I am a member of the Yankee Division Veterans Association, I regret to state that I must prefer to be dropped as a member of the American Legion that I may retain my rights as a free American citizen granted me under the constitution of the United States. Yours respectfully,

CHARLES A. STEVENS.

DEATH RATE MAY BE SLIGHTLY HIGHER

The local death rate for 1920 will be slightly higher than the rate for 1919 if the mortality reports for the remaining two months of this year show the same numerical trend as the average for the first ten months of the year.

The death rate for 1919, based on a population of 107,978, the population given this city by the 1915 state census, was 15.81 per 1000. The death rate for this year, up to Nov. 1, based on the federal census population of 112,759, is 15.81 per 1000.

So far this year there have been 1196 deaths while in the first ten months of last year there were 1468 deaths. The number of deaths per month has been as follows:

	1920	1919
January	113	128
February	113	127
March	107	163
April	133	156
May	133	157
June	105	105
July	130	112
August	103	147
September	136	114
October	112	130
Totals	1195	1468

There has also been an increase in infant mortality this year as compared with a year ago. Six months ago far in 1920 had shown a greater infant mortality than the corresponding months of 1919. These months have been February, March, April, May, September and October.

The total number of deaths of children under one since the beginning of the present year up to Nov. 1 has been 175 while during the same period last year only 123 deaths of children less than a year old were reported.

Claims Ruin of Business

ward Cavley, Horne Coal company and Daniel T. Sullivan.

The ad damnum named in the case is $15,000.

Sullivan has the Lowell court room seen a more imposing array of legal talent than was assembled to try the case before Judge Bishop and a jury.

Started 20 Years Ago
Henry V. Charbonneau said in opening for the plaintiff that the action was one of tort to recover damages from the defendants for putting the plaintiff out of the coal business. He described the starting of the business of Mr. Lajoie 20 years ago, and of its growth until he was selling 15,000 tons of coal a year. He said that in January, 1915 the plaintiff had 5000 tons of coal on hand, that he was the only fuel dealer in Lowell with a supply and that all of the coal of the plaintiff had been ordered by customers. He said there had been sharp competition between the local fuel merchants. He asserted that the defendants not only took away Mr. Lajoie's coal and gave it to his competitors, but that they prevented his getting a new supply of fuel.

The attorney said it would be the contention of the plaintiff that neither Mr. Storow, the federal fuel administrators nor the Lowell administrators were public officials within the meaning of the law. He said the defendant conspired to put the plaintiff out of business because he had a large supply of coal while his competitors had none.

Denied Direct Instructions
Mr. Storow denied in reply to interrogations that he had furnished any direct instructions to the Lowell fuel administration, or that he had any knowledge of re-assignments of coal.

Mr. Lajoie, resuming his testimony, identified a letter that he had received from John M. O'Donoghue, chairman of the Lowell fuel committee, in which a list was given of numerous cars of coal consigned to the plaintiff, that had been offered diverted to other dealers.

after he had unloaded three cars of coal Daniel T. Sullivan came to his yard and took it away. He said that Sullivan screened the coal and took away the same number of tons of screened coal as was credited as coming in each car unscreened.

BOLSHEVIKI ATTACKING WRANGEL'S LINE

SEBASTOPOL, Nov. 3. (By Associated Press.)—Bolshevik troops are successfully attacking the line held by Gen. Wrangel's army south of Perekop. The Soviet army is battering at the seven-mile trench system which extends east and west across the narrow neck of land leading to the Crimean peninsula, but Gen. Wrangel's position is quite strong. It has on its left the Gulf of Perekop and on its right the Gulf of Sivash, or Putrid sea. Back of his main lines, he has heavy naval guns and other artillery.

PLEA FOR A "SQUARE DEAL" IN INDUSTRY

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The Rev. Jones J. Corrigan, S.J., made a strong plea for a "square deal" in industry before an audience of the Young Men's Catholic association in the Boston college high school building on James street last night.

The speaker declared, "With the elections out of the way, all should pull together now for industrial prosperity. A return of good will and confidence all around is what our industrial life needs just at present. There has been too much recrimination and suspicion. We must get to the point of view that we all need to get is the public good, which includes not merely the interests of employer and employee, but the welfare of every man, woman and child in the commonwealth."

The Boston college professor declared that there has been too much "group-interest" in industrial life, and this must give way to the public welfare. He likewise stated that the "class and mass" idea in America is threatening industrial peace at the present time. "The one thing which is guaranteed by our social system is the guarantee of equality of opportunity," said Mr. Corrigan. "That must be kept open to all, not as an abstract theory, but as a real concrete blessing."

"There is no place for an oppressive caste system in the United States of America. No foreigner, on the other hand, who comes to this country has a right to blame all its failures upon the social system of America. In the social system of his own land, the man at the bottom may never have had a chance to come to the top. In America, he has. American equality of opportunity makes the difference. It must be kept so by the 'square deal' and the principles of fairness."

Father Corrigan declared that the "square deal" in industry recognizes "men as men and not mere machines," and more than a means of accumulating wealth. "From the workers, the square deal creed requires that they give honestly applied energy, constructive thought and effort to reduce costs, regular and dependable service, the elimination of idleness, indifference, restriction of output and poor workmanship."

Present Attitude Menace

Concluding, the speaker said: "The present belligerent attitude of capital and labor is full of menace for all of us. The junkers in both camps should be curbed. Now is the time for American industry and all parties to it to subscribe to the creed of the 'square deal' and the promotion of industrial peace."

PARENTS AND TEACHERS

The parents and teachers of the Dartmouth school district held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. Following the business meeting a group of first grade children, under the direction of Miss Esie Roche, entertained the parents. President Mrs. Lambert presented Mrs. A. W. Sandwall of the state department of health, who spoke on "The Diet of the School Child." Rarely do mothers and teachers have the opportunity of hearing such a helpful, practical discussion of such an important subject. Tea was served by the domestic science department.

Henry F. Doran and Anthony Phornare have filed their nomination papers with the election commission as candidates for the school committee.

Educators declare that it costs much more to educate the boy than the girl, largely because of a boy's tendency to destructiveness.

PROBATIONERS PAID OVER MILLION

Probation officers in Massachusetts courts collected more than $1,000,000 during the year ending Sept. 30 last, according to a statement issued last evening from the office of the state commission on probation.

The exact amount, omitting three small courts which have not yet reported to the commission, was $1,030,475, an increase over last year of $223,726, and the largest annual gain since the service was established.

Statement Contains Comparative Figures Showing a Rapid and Constant Gain from 1905, in which year the total was $19,067, the gain, according to the commission, being a reflection of the expanding work in the domestic relations cases.

The largest item is non-support collections amounting to $530,630 in the last year, an increase of $194,147 over 1919, while 11 years ago the total was $25,238.

The $330,030 was largely made up of payments made by persons adjudged guilty of family desertion, with lesser amounts from the fathers of illegitimate children and for the support of indigent parents, all under orders of court, requiring a specific weekly payment. The money is paid over to the families without expense to them.

Under requirements by the court that restitution be made to persons whose property has been stolen or damaged, the officers collected and paid $116,547 the past year. The items were largely made up of collections made in juvenile cases. In 1905 the amount of restitution was $6584.

The remaining items, fines collected by probation officers in lieu of commitment of the defendant who has been sentenced to pay a fine and is unable to pay at the time of sentence, shows a decline this year as compared with last. The amount, $2,511, is relatively small, but the decline is a reflection, the statement points out, of the effect of prohibition.

Cost of Service Reduced

The total cost of probation service in the commonwealth fell below $350,000, or less than a third of the amount collected, all of which goes to the benefit of the public. The largest collections in the state were in the Boston municipal court, $131,013, the Suffolk superior being second with $120,212. The collections in the Suffolk county court amounted to $144,364.

Outside Suffolk county courts in which the probation collections exceed $10,000 are as follows: Middlesex superior, $57,613; Lynn district, $45,007; Springfield police, $41,759; New Bedford district, $38,687; Salem district, $32,525; Worcester district, $31,502; Cambridge district, $27,079; Fall River district, $25,333; Malden district, $23,536; Lowell district, $23,361; Lawrence district, $21,541; Essex superior, $21,821; Brockton police, $20,143; Quincy district, $16,467; Worcester superior, $15,587; Berkshire district, $14,492; central police, $12,511; southern superior (Hampshire, Bristol, Dukes, Nantucket), $10,580; southeastern superior (Norfolk, Plymouth), $10,665; Somerville police, $10,625.

FINED FOR KEEPING WATERED MILK

David Jarman, a farmer of Draught, was arraigned in police court this morning and fined $50 for keeping watered milk with intent to sell. He was ordered to furnish $300 bonds. Court ruled that although Jarman did send a letter to his wife in this city telling her that he would live with her again that would not justify non-support because he did not visit his wife personally. The wife refused to come to live with her husband.

William E. Kennerson of Nashua, N. H., charged with drunkenness and driving an auto so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public, was granted a continuance.

Elphige Chilcote, charged with non-support of his wife, was found guilty and ordered to five months in the house of correction. Defendant appealed and was ordered to furnish $300 bonds.

Court ruled that although Chilcote did send a letter to his wife in this city telling her that he would live with her again that would not justify non-support because he did not visit his wife personally. The wife refused to come to live with her husband.

DOCTORS DIDN'T HELP HER SICKLY CHILD

Strong and Healthy Now. Mother Says Milk's Emulsion Saved Its Life

"Last May, my three-year-old baby was taken very ill, got so bad that we expected her to die at any time. Had four doctors but they did not know what ailed her and finally stopped coming. She had been sick about five months when I started giving her Milk's Emulsion. I noticed results from the first and by the time she had taken 2 bottles she was absolutely strong and healthy. I am thankful to say Milk's Emulsion saved her life."

Mrs. Willis S. Pitts, Naconogoch, Md.

For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milk's Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it because unlike many emulsions and tonics, it really tastes good.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores health, nature's bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physicks. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a lung tonic, it is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repelling the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. It is a water-holding emulsion. You are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, return the money and $1.50 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by Fred Howard and all first class druggists.—Adv.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
What is claimed to be one of the most extraordinary productions of the season is now being presented at Merrimack Square theatre. Its unusualness lies chiefly in the plot and the heroine. The photograph "Sins of Women" is a story of a woman who started, has the role of a pretty woman with virtually a dual personality. In the first part of the play, a native Malay woman, who is a native of the island of Sumatra, is shown in a life of luxury and ease. In the second part, she is shown in a life of poverty and hardship. The play is a powerful and moving story, and is sure to attract large audiences.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—In the seventh congressional district, Representative A. J. Volstead, republican, today had a slight lead over Rev. D. J. K. Vale, independent, endorsed by the Non-Partisan league.

WOMAN Elected Sheriff
ROSCOMMON, Michigan, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Jane Johnson, republican, has been elected sheriff of Roscommon county. She defeated Walter Gardner, democrat.

Close Race in Nevada
RENO, Nev., Nov. 4.—Returns from every county in Nevada today give Senator I. Odde, republican, a lead over Senator Charles H. Henderson, democrat. Practically complete figures give: Odde 10,636; Henderson 9559; Anne Martin, independent, 4624.

Democrats Lead in New Mexico
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 4.—Scattered returns from over the state showed a slight lead for democratic governor. Headquarters of both major parties claimed the final returns would show victory.

Oklahoma Republican
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 4.—Oklahoma swung safely into the republican column today on returns from 2000 of the 2655 precincts in the state. It appeared that the state would split its congressional delegation, probably even.

A tabulation of 1974 precincts out of 2555 for president gave a republican majority of 5513, the vote being: Harding 172,313; Cox 163,890.

For United States Senator 2048 precincts gave a republican majority of 17,537.

U. S. Senator Smith Defeated
PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 4.—With more than three-fourth of all precincts tabulated, Ralph H. Cameron republican, apparently has defeated United States Senator Marcus A. Smith, for re-election. Cameron holds a lead of 6093 votes.

Carl Hayden, apparently has been returned to congress. Governor Campbell, republican, holds a lead of 3500 votes for re-election.

North Dakota
FARGO, N. D., Nov. 4.—Close contests for United States senator and governor were shown on returns available here today. Dr. E. F. Lund, republican-non-partisan, took the lead for senator from H. H. Perry, democrat, with 1556 of the state's 2051 precincts still missing. Lund had 16,507 and Perry 14,756.

Although early returns were gradually cutting down his margin, J. F. O'Connor, democrat, still led Governor Lynn J. Frazier, republican-non-partisan by more than $500 votes in the gubernatorial race. Early yesterday O'Connor's lead was more than 19,000. There are 655 precincts yet to be heard from.

Berger Blames Women
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—Victor Berger, socialist today laid his defeat in his contest for congress to the fact that women were voting for the first time in Milwaukee.

"Woman suffrage at first always helps reaction because the well-to-do women will always vote while the working class women do not vote as a mass," he said.

"Woman suffrage eventually will prove to be one of the greatest weapons of democracy in existence."

Miller Defends Gov. Smith
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Revised returns from 31, but 121 of the 1365 districts in the state tabulated early today, gave Nathan L. Miller, republican, a plurality of 63,275 over Governor Alfred E. Smith in the gubernatorial contest. The vote was: Miller, 1,811,001; Smith, 1,747,726.

All of the missing districts are in up-state counties. If Miller's ratio of gain is maintained there, he will have a triumph partly early.

Returns from all but 143 districts gave Senator Harding a plurality of 1,059,529 over Governor Cox. The returns tabulated gave: Harding, 1,542,722; Cox, 732,693.

republicans had a plurality of 131. Late returns also indicated possible turnovers in cases of some democratic representatives reported elected. Although early returns were gradually cutting down his margin, J. F. O'Connor, democrat, still led Governor Lynn J. Frazier, republican-non-partisan by more than $500 votes in the gubernatorial race. Early yesterday O'Connor's lead was more than 19,000. There are 655 precincts yet to be heard from.

Berger Blames Women
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—Victor Berger, socialist today laid his defeat in his contest for congress to the fact that women were voting for the first time in Milwaukee.

"Woman suffrage at first always helps reaction because the well-to-do women will always vote while the working class women do not vote as a mass," he said.

"Woman suffrage eventually will prove to be one of the greatest weapons of democracy in existence."

stood and appreciated in this old world of ours which has lost its illusions and is no longer in a mood to strain after visionary politics."

The Manchester Guardian says: "The main political motive for the election's choice is by general assent accumulated dislike of Wilsonism and not love of Harding and his party. The national repudiation marks a tragic change from those weeks in the autumn of 1918, when the material power of America was deciding the world war, and her foremost mind was leading the world towards such a peace as might have given us a tranquil, swiftly-convalescent world, instead of the present weary fair of splendor, greed and suspicions between nations and disunion inside each of them. The soiled, seared old world of international politics seemed to be on the eve of redemption on the day when the news came that Germany would surrender on the basis of Wilson's 11 points."

"In what proportions a want of dynamic genius in President Wilson and an irredeemable viciousness of spirit in other politicians contributed to darken that opening prospect, we cannot tell yet. It is gone now. Europe is snarling, grabbing and jockeying in the old slime, while all the remaining effect of Wilsonism in America is the decision of the presidential election by an overwhelming balance of public antipathy to it. The story is that of one of the most pitiful of all failures in the execution of a task nobly conceived."

Big Gain for Republicans
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 4.—With Champ Clark defeated by T. W. Hucklebide of Warrenton, Mo., indications today were that the republicans would gain eight members of the house from Missouri. The republicans seemed sure of election.

There was a close race in Jackson county (Kansas City). Representative Blank, democrat, was leading with 77,082 votes to 77,007 for Ellis, republican.

If the present leads are maintained, the senate will return two democratic incumbents and elect a democrat in the 11th (St. Louis) district to succeed W. L. Lodge, democrat, who did not seek re-election.

In seven districts, democratic congressmen, who are candidates for re-election, are trailing their republican opponents and in the fourth district, Gilbert, the democratic nominee is running behind Faust, republican, for the seat vacated by C. F. Hooper, democrat.

Chamberlain Faces Defeat
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—Robert N. Stanfield, republican candidate for United States senator, increased his lead over the democratic incumbent, George E. Chamberlain, in returns tabulated today.

Returns from 1351 precincts of 1699 in the state gave Stanfield 56,372, and Chamberlain 53,293.

BRITISH COMMENT ON HARDING'S ELECTION

CHAMP CLARK LOSES HIS SEAT IN HOUSE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Champ Clark, veteran and former speaker of the house of representatives, to which he has been elected more times than the average voter can remember, last night surrendered his post to T. W. Hukriede of Warrenton, Mo., young republican candidate in the ninth Missouri district.

Facing a handicap of 5000 votes, with five-sixths of the precincts in his district—including democratic strongholds—Mr. Clark sent a telegram to Hukriede congratulating him "on his victory." Two hundred and twenty of the 265 precincts had given Hukriede a vote of 30,421 to Clark's 25,473 before backers of the incumbent admitted he had lost.

Even then Clark refused to talk to reporters. He remained at home most of the day, confident of victory, while returns from republican counties piled up leads for his opponent. As county after county which ordinarily chose Clark as its representative sent in reports which showed he was polling a smaller vote than ever before, it became apparent his hope lay in his home district, Pike county. Pike gave Clark one of his best votes in history—5165, to 2851 for Hukriede—but it was not enough.

Not until his friends came to him with virtually complete returns and assurances of defeat did the Clark household believe it would be defeated.

Mr. Clark was first elected in 1893. In 1895 he was not chosen but in 1897 he again was the choice of his district and has represented it ever since. In 1912 he was considered a favorite for the democratic nomination for president, but lost to Woodrow Wilson after a long fight, primarily through a break with William Jennings Bryan.

In 1916 Mr. Clark had a close call, opponent apparently having been elected according to early returns, only to lose the lead in the complete returns.

Most of the precincts which have not yet reported gave Mr. Clark an even break in 1918, while a few gave him a bare majority.

WILSON AND COX BLAMED BY BRYAN

JANCOIN, Neb., Nov. 4.—William J. Bryan placed what he termed, the blame for democratic defeat about equally between President Wilson and Governor Cox in a statement made here last evening. The president, he said, "laid the foundation for the disaster and the governor completed the structure."

"The American people want the government to play its part in the abolition of war but they are indifferent as to whether we are a part of a league or part of an association of nations," the statement said. "The real issue presented by the democratic party was not whether we should co-operate with other nations interested in peace, but whether we should assume a moral obligation which had no weight except as it suspended the right of congress to act independently. The nation will do its part in adding to prevent war but it will not surrender into the keeping of any foreign group the right to determine when we shall declare war."

"Governor Cox instead of repairing the injury done by the president, aggravated the situation by the manner in which he avoided domestic issues and misrepresented the position of the republican party on the league issue, which he declared to be paramount."

HARDING'S ELECTION PLEASES THE "DRYS"

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The election of Senator Harding is more pleasing to prohibitionists than the election of Cox would have been, Chairman Hinchshaw of the prohibition national committee said yesterday.

"This is because of his recent public statement made to the national temperance council that he would use whatever power he possessed to prevent the re-establishment of intoxicating liquors, and also his statement that his future action on prohibition should be interpreted by his vote upon the 18th amendment and the Volstead law," Mr. Hinchshaw said.

The prohibition party through Chairman Hinchshaw, yesterday sent the following message to Senator Harding:

"We congratulate you upon your great victory. You have been elected president of all the American people and we pledge you our earnest support in the enforcement of all law and the constitution and in helping you to prevent the re-establishment of intoxicating liquors in accordance with the policy laid down by you to the national temperance council, representing all prohibition, temperance and church organizations."

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 4.—Miss Rose Starling, an athletic young woman and ardent democrat, paid a heroic election bet on Gov. Cox's defeat yesterday when she dived 40 feet from Portland bridge and swam a third of a mile through the icy waters of the harbor to the boat of the Portland Yacht club.

She was in the water 23 minutes. When Miss Starling leaped from the bridge yesterday afternoon in the presence of 2500 persons, she miscalculated the distance and struck flat on her stomach. She was stunned and feebly cried for help while the horrified crowd thought she had been killed.

Before a boat could reach her, however, the plucky girl recovered and refusing assistance swam away. Only one Harding supporter, a high school boy athlete, had taken Miss Starling's dare to perform the stunt in case the republican candidate was beaten.

GOV. COX PLANS TRIP ABROAD

DAYTON, O., Nov. 4.—Governor Cox, the defeated presidential candidate, looking forward to the time he will surrender his state office in January, announced last night that he was considering a trip abroad early next year to study conditions in Europe. Meanwhile, he said, he planned to work and rest, leaving here for the state capital on Friday, and starting the middle of next week for a hunting trip in Mississippi. Yesterday found the governor apparently in the same philosophical mental state as when he watched the returns last night, bringing in continuous unfavorable news. His smile was still apparent last night and the mass of telegrams seemed unanimous in declaring he made a "good fight."

The governor's final act yesterday was to send a congratulatory message to Senator Harding, the presidential elect, in which he volunteered "as a citizen" to support the nation's chief executive in "whatever emergency might arise."

The defeated candidate's concession of his defeat. Little in the belated returns yesterday served to soften the sting of defeat. For the first time in the governor's political career his home county of Montgomery, including this city, went against him, Harding carrying it by about 8000. Middletown, where he lived as a boy, also went to Senator Harding by five votes, but the county itself gave a comfortable edge to the governor.

"I have not had a chance to travel much," the governor said last night. "I began to work quite young and I think I'll soon go to Europe to study conditions there."

The governor divided his time yesterday between his home here and his farm at Jacksonburg, the place of his birth. While at the farm he helped the farm workers husk corn. Mrs. Cox was with him during the day and last night they scanned the many messages received at their home, Senator Hotel.

LOWELL MAN OPENS SANATORIUM

Dr. Charles E. Donlan, for 12 years superintendent of the Long Island hospital in Boston harbor, and formerly of this city, is now the owner and director of a new sanatorium in Malden. "Glenrock," the noted Benjamin F. Dutton property in the Middlesex Fells, has been transformed under the direction of Dr. Donlan into one of the most fully equipped sanatoria in the section of the country. The institution is developed to accommodate 250 patients and at present has about 100.

The estate at Glenrock was purchased years ago and developed by Benjamin F. Dutton, one of the founders of the firm of Houghton and Dutton of Boston. It covers about eight acres and has seven large modern buildings to be used for hospital purposes. The grounds are heavily timbered, picturesque with Italian sunken gardens, fountains and natural springs. The buildings are artistic and distinctive in architecture, and finished in hard woods. The administration building, the White House, is located next to the famous Dutton deer park and will house the personnel of the hospital.

All the patients in the hospital at present are in convalescence. The hospital is equipped with large kitchen facilities.

Dr. Donlan has had international training and education in his profession and in the Spanish and world wars and during the Mexican border trouble he held a commission in the United States army. When Dr. Donlan left the Long Island hospital he declined three offers of public service positions because of his determination to manage a private hospital of his own.

yesterday that elections results mean the end of the League of Nations.

"No amount of sophistry or pretence can obscure the issue in yesterday's election," he said. "Men and women who bear the burden and pay the price of war finally have had the opportunity to pass upon the foreign policy of their country. On the one hand was the internationalism of the League of Nations and on the other the American policy of Washington, Jefferson and Monroe.

"The menacing, dangerous and entangling league has been emphatically and overwhelmingly repudiated. Sons and daughters of America have determined America shall remain the nation we have known, continuing steadfastly in the old path that led to our present greatness and glory. It is the recrudescence of Americanism. The victory of Senator Harding is the response of the American spirit to the endeavor to denationalize."

MILLERAND APPEARS WITHOUT GUARD

PARIS, Nov. 4.—President Millerand has amazed some of the old residents of Paris by appearing on the streets of the city apparently without a guard. Scores of persons recognized the French president when he walked the other day from the Elysee Palace through the Champs Elysees toward the Seine and his progress was marked by a succession of bows. Not a detective was in sight.

This is in sharp contrast to the practice of most former presidents. Few of them ever have ventured forth alone and in most cases they have been surrounded by a strong guard of detectives or police. M. Millerand's democratic conduct in this respect has caused much comment and increased his popularity.

Sick Headache is Never Fatal

Some Forms Are Incurable But Most Cases Are Greatly Benefited by Proper Treatment

Among the diseases from which there is no danger of death, sick headache causes more suffering, discomfort and disturbance of domestic affairs than any other. When the wife and mother is prostrated from one to three days at frequent intervals there is a sad interference with home life, housework gets behind and the home is anything but a happy one.

There are incurable cases of sick headache but usually attacks can be reduced in frequency and intensity by tonic treatment. This is based upon building up the general health for it has long been known that attacks of sick headache are more frequent when the patient is debilitated and decrease when the general health improves.

"I had sick headaches that lasted for several days at a time," says Mrs. E. Russell, of No. 11 Nelson street, North Adams, Mass. "At times I had spells of melancholy and felt very nervous. I could not sleep well and was at times in the morning as at night. My stomach was sour at times and my appetite was very poor. Very often I had vomiting spells.

"For many years I had heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them. One box brought back my color and I could see a general improvement. I took eight boxes in all.

"The headaches are entirely gone now and my stomach gives me no trouble. I rest well and am refreshed by my sleep. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful tonic and I am glad to recommend them whenever I have a chance."

Sick headache is another name for nervous headache. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and tone up the entire system. They are used with benefit for nervousness, insomnia, neuralgia and disorders caused by thin blood and weak nerves.

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

In finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

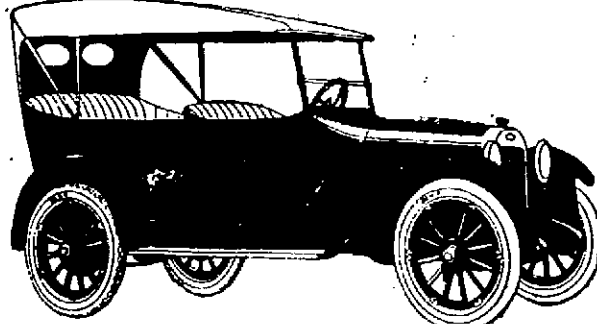

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Dews, druggists, and Fred Howard have been appointed agents for Allen's in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

CAVANAUGH SIGNS
WITH B. C. FOR 5 YEARS

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Major Frank W. Cavanaugh, head coach of the Boston college football team for the past two seasons, former Dartmouth mentor and Y. D. officer, signed a contract yesterday with the Boston college football team for five years starting next September.

Major Cavanaugh started his coaching career 15 years ago at the Denver Athletic club, where he was a player coach. After attaining great success in Denver he assumed coaching responsibilities at Holy Cross college in his native city, Worcester. From Holy Cross he was called to his alma mater, Dartmouth, where he coached the most successful teams in the history of the college. He coached the team for a period of six years.

When the war broke out Frank Cavanaugh became Private Cavanaugh in the United States army. He was in the ranks but a short time when he was promoted to the rank of second lieutenant, and went into Germany as a member of the American Expeditionary force. He was promoted to the rank of captain and was severely wounded at the front and received promotion to the rank of major. September, 1919, he took his position as head coach of Boston college.

His first drive at Boston college was registered when his team sent Yale down to defeat last year and followed his hand the following year by winning the Eastern Catholic college championship. He repeated the Yale success this year.

The members of the Indians football team will hold a practice session at the corner of Hubbard and Gorham streets tomorrow night at 7.30 o'clock. The Indians will play the South Boston A.C. on the fair grounds next Sunday afternoon.

POLO NOTES
Providence will play here tomorrow night.

Lee Taylor has not yet joined the Worcester team, but is said to be on his way. The team needs him badly.

Soxy Lyons, the star halfback of the Providence team, and Lanky Harry Thompson, rush, who shine in the "aerial attack" will be here tomorrow night.

Plans for the "Harkins' Night" on next Tuesday evening are progressing and indications point to the affair being one of the greatest in the history of the game. The demand for tickets indicates that a record crowd will turn out to greet one of the most popular players ever connected with the game. Those desirous of attending should make reservations early.

"Red" Donnelly of the Worcester team has been secured by Lowell to play center in place of Bouchard. Donnelly has been a member of the Worcester team for four seasons, and until this season he always played center. When Griffith joined the Worcester club, Donnelly went to half-back, which position he has been playing up until last night. Worcester has secured Foley to replace Donnelly at half back, and "Red" came to Lowell today, and will play his first game as a member of Bob Hall's quiet against Providence here tomorrow night.

8 KILLED IN RACE CLASH

Former Service Men Patrol Streets of Orlando, Fla., to Prevent Outbreaks

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 4.—Former service men patrolled the streets of Orlando and nearby towns throughout the night to prevent renewal of the race clash which is known to have erupted in the death of George Tuesday night of two white men and six negroes. Quiet prevailed early today and the authorities said they did not expect any further outbreak.

Deputy sheriffs who were called to Ocoee by the riot which was the outgrowth of the election, said they believed the death toll would exceed eight. They said they were convinced the bodies of several negroes would be found in the ruins of 25 houses destroyed by fire.

The battle between white citizens and negroes followed an attempt on the part of a negro to vote. He was denied the privilege by election officials on the ground that he had not paid his poll tax.

Later, it is reported, white citizens believed a crowd of negroes intended to attack them and shooting resulted.

Hot Griddle Cakes

2 cups flour

Waffles

3 cups flour
4 teaspoons Cleveland's Baking Powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 cups milk
1 egg
1 tablespoon melted shortening

Mix flour, baking powder and salt together; add milk with a dash of egg; mix thoroughly and add to dry ingredients; add melted shortening and mix in beaten whites of eggs. Bake in well greased hot waffle iron until brown. Serve hot with maple syrup. It should take about 1 1/2 minutes to bake each waffle.

1 1/2 cups milk

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and cleaning the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Her shift from the democratic ranks, coupled with a similar upset in Oklahoma, assured Warren G. Harding of 390 electoral votes as against 127 definitely in the James M. Cox column, and 14 in doubt, as follows:

Arizona 3; Nevada 3; New Mexico 3; and North Dakota 5. In all of these states, save New Mexico, Harding was in the lead on available returns and even in New Mexico, republican managers were claiming a Harding plurality though available returns showed a Cox lead.

10,000 Lead in Tennessee
Tennessee on the face of returns tabulated by the Memphis Commercial Appeal from 93 to 95 counties, with 60 precincts missing, gave Harding 193,759 votes and Cox 139,782. A Harding plurality of 54,977. Governor Roberts, democratic, was swept out on the republican tide and Alf A. Taylor, unsuccessful candidate for governor against his brother in 1916, was elected.

No further actual upsets were reported from the solid south, although several towns in Florida and Louisiana and several counties in Georgia and Alabama broke precedents by piling up Harding pluralities.

G.O.P. Congressional Sweep
The republican congressional sweep assumed larger proportions as late returns continued to come in. The victory of Samuel D. Nicholson, republican candidate for senate from Colorado assured President-elect Harding a majority of at least 10 in the upper house, and in the states where senatorial choices had not been determined, the republican candidates were in the lead in four, Arizona, Oregon, Nevada and North Dakota. In the fifth, Kentucky, republican leaders still clung to the hope that late returns would overcome the advantage held by Senator J. Beckham, over Richard P. Ernst, his republican opponent.

257 Republicans in House
The republicans had secured 257 seats in the house of representatives to 122 for the democrats.

Four seats went to miscellaneous, including one socialist and one prohibitionist. Forty-two districts were unreported. On the returns so far the

MORE REPUBLICAN GAINS IN SOUTH

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 4.—Tennessee and Louisiana were not the only states in the solid south in which the republicans made unexpected gains in the presidential election. Latest reports from Florida show that Senator Harding carried a number of towns, including St. Petersburg, Orlando and Daytona. Returns from the outlying districts are coming in slowly, and republican leaders predict they will show further gains.

For the first time in history, several towns and county precincts in the Sixth Mississippi district gave republican majorities, the towns including Seminary and Runnels. Some counties in Alabama heretofore strongly democratic also returned republican majorities.

In two congressional districts, the Seventh Alabama and Tenth Carolina, the republican candidates for congress have made charges of fraud and threaten to contest the election of the democratic representatives.

PROBE PALMER'S ACTION

Investigation of Attorney General's Connection With Case Against Miners

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer was advised in a telegram from Federal Judge Anderson today, that an investigation of the attorney general's connection with the case against 125 coal mine operators and miners would be made when the case is called for trial in the federal court here on Nov. 8. Mr. Palmer was invited to be present on that date.

No indication as to the scope of the investigation was given in the telegram, but it was believed that Dan W. Simms, special assistant counsel for the government, would be called to explain a proposal in regard to the evidence in the case said to have been made by Mr. Palmer, and which resulted in Mr. Simms' withdrawal from the case. It was expected that United States District Attorney Fred Vannoy, former District Attorney L. E. Slack and department of justice agents would also be called.

Judge Anderson assured the attorney general that the case would be called on the date set, although to date, only the Indiana operators and miners and those of western Pennsylvania who voluntarily surrendered are in the jurisdiction of the Indiana district court. The telegram follows:

"Judge Anderson directs me to notify you that the case against the soft coal operators and miners, United States versus Armstrong et al., will be called for trial in this court at the time set, next Monday, Nov. 8, at which time an investigation will be made in open court of certain matters involving your connection with the case. The notice is given so that you may be present if you so desire."

"Noble C. Butler, clerk, United States district court."

Judge Anderson's action was the result of the resignation on Oct. 4 of Mr. Simms, who was in charge of the prosecution of the 125 miners and operators indicted March 11 last for violation of the Lever act.

They were indicted by a special grand jury convened by Judge Anderson, Dec. 2, 1919, for the purpose of making an investigation of the conduct of the miners' strike in the bituminous fields of western Pennsylvania and of possible collusion between the miners and operators in connection with the strike.

Mr. Simms' explanation of his resignation was that Attorney General Palmer had imposed limitations on the conduct of the case that "literally cut the heart out of the case."

The difference between the attorney general and Mr. Simms is said to have grown out of a disagreement as to the use of evidence in the case against the miners and operators.

MILLS WILL CLOSE THIS EVENING

The entire plant of the Tremont & Suffolk mills as well as most of the departments of the Merrimack Mills and the Merrimack Mfg. Co. will shut down this evening until Monday morning. The Hamilton Mfg. Co. will shut down tomorrow evening until Tuesday morning, according to announcements made this morning.

The Ipswich hosiery, which shut down a week ago yesterday, will resume operations next Monday morning.

The Whitall Mfg. Co., which has been operating with about 50 per cent. of its normal force, received a substantial order yesterday, which will keep the help busy several weeks.

One of the local mill agents stated this morning that he believes the curtailing conditions that are now existing will prevail until the new year. He said although the price of cotton has dropped about 50 per cent., and that even though the price of manufactured cotton has been reduced about 40 per cent., there is no market for the goods at present. "The retail stores," he said, "are well stocked and they are endeavoring to dispose of what they have on hand before buying new stock, which means it will be at least a couple of months before orders come in."

This mill agent says he does not believe there will be a reduction in wages in the Lowell cotton mills for some time, for he thinks this will not be attempted until the cost of living has dropped some. He expects that along in January business will pick up so that the conditions in the mills may become normal.

DISORDERS IN BARCELONA

MADRID, Nov. 4.—Further disorders have broken out in Barcelona, where, according to newspaper dispatches received today, three clashes occurred yesterday. One person was killed and two probably mortally shot.

Voters of the Eighth Middlesex District

I wish to thank the men and women voters of the Eighth Middlesex District for the splendid support which I received on election day.

Yours truly,

Brockton Car Leaves Rail and Crashes Into Tree at Abington

Passengers Thrown Into Heap and Showered With Glass—Three in Hospital

ABINGTON, Nov. 4.—Seven passengers, including four women, were injured and many others bruised and cut by broken glass when a Rockland bound trolley car from Brockton, heavily laden with factory workers, was derailed here, early this morning and crashed into a tree.

Three of the injured are in the hospital. They are Mrs. Bessie Mason of Brockton, back and leg injured, and Mrs. Mary Hyland of Abington, broken ankle, both in Brockton hospital.

Jack Hurwitz, Brockton was taken to the central hospital, Rockland. The four other passengers injured were treated by physicians and removed to their homes.

The accident happened at a point where the car track crosses the road. As the car took the turn, the rear trucks left the rails, and the car swiped a large tree, breaking several windows. The crash threw the passengers, many of whom were standing, into a heap and broken glass showered upon them.

URGES LIMITATIONS ON EXPORT OF COAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Limitations on the export of coal to insure an adequate supply for home industries and to direct the trade to countries that are natural markets for American coal and to those to which American ships sail in ballast, were advocated today by Secretary of Commerce Alexander in a discussion of a national coal export policy.

When conditions returned to normal, he said, there would be little possibility of American producers obtaining a permanent foothold in Europe and competing with the mines of England, Germany and France. For South American countries, however, he declared, the United States would be the logical and natural source of supply.

"Our national prestige in these countries would be increased," he continued, "if the United States were looked to as a friendly and certain source for such indispensable raw material, and our influence would be correspondingly increased if any drastic action was taken designed to hinder the free movement of coal to these countries."

Coal can be exported advantageously on trade routes where American ships lack cargoes for the outward voyage, the secretary thinks. He urged producers and shipping interests to co-operate to this end.

Coal supply for home industry, however, should first be assured, he declared, before any determined effort should be made to obtain foreign markets.

"It has been frequently pointed out that the total exports of coal form only a small percentage of our total production," he continued, "but the coal that is exported comes almost entirely from the Appalachian field, which also supplies the most highly developed industrial districts. The too extensive development of the export trade from this field is likely to result in an increased price to domestic consumers, who are manufacturers for home consumption and foreign trade."

MEXICAN EXECUTED FOR MURDER OF AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Summary trial and execution of an unnamed Mexican charged with the murder of American citizens, has been reported to the American embassy at Mexico City by the Mexican foreign office, the state department was advised today.

The foreign office also reported to the embassy that Lieut. Col. Guadalupe Gonzalez had been arrested as an accomplice in the killing of the Americans near Tampico on Oct. 23, under instructions of the state department. The American embassy had made urgent presentations to the foreign office that prompt and effective measures be taken to arrest and punish the guilty.

The department also instructed the American consul to make representations to the local authorities at Tampico.

EX-GOV. GRAHAM GOES TO JAIL

Former Vermont Executive Sentenced to Serve Not Less Than Five Years

Was Convicted on More Than 50 Counts of Grand Larceny

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 4.—Ex-Gov. Horace F. Graham of Vermont was today sentenced in Vermont supreme court to serve not less than five years and not more than eight years, and to pay the costs of prosecution, for grand larceny, while serving as state auditor prior to his term as governor. The sentence was pronounced in one of the most tense scenes ever witnessed in the court, judges on the bench, attorneys and spectators being plainly affected.

The sentence followed the action of the respondent's attorneys in waiving exceptions and requesting permission to withdraw a petition for a new trial. In pronouncing sentence, Judge George M. Powers said that the case was stripped of all sentiment when it came to the supreme court and that it was only for the court to decide on the points of the law. Therefore, he imposed the penalty as above given and committed the respondent to the custody of the sheriff.

Ex-Gov. Graham was convicted in Washington county court on more than 50 counts of grand larceny. Before the trial started, ex-Gov. Graham had made restitution of a greater part of the $22,000 alleged to have been taken.

GERMAN SHIP ARRIVES

First Merchant Steamship
Flying German Flag to
Come to N. Y. Since 1914

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The first merchant steamship flying the German flag to come to New York since July 1914, arrived here today.

The vessel, which marks the resumption of trade with Germany under the flag of that country was the Sophie Rickmers, a steamer of 4803 tons built in Germany during the war. She is flying the old German merchant marine flag.

She was retained by the Germans under the provision of the armistice regulations which permitted that country to keep such vessels as were under construction and not 50 per cent completed, when the war ended. She is assigned to the Kerk Steamship Co., an American agent. The ship is in ballast and will take cargo here for the return voyage. Her captain and crew are Germans.

FRANKLIN PENNY

One of the First Copper Coins to be Authorized by Congress Has Been Found in Dover

DOVER, Mass., Nov. 4.—A Franklin penny, the first copper coin to be authorized by congress, has been found on the homestead of one of the first settlers here. It was struck in 1787 and is one of a few that were coined.

The penny took its name from Benjamin Franklin because of the inclusion in its design of the homely admonition "Mind your business," after suggestion by him that coins should serve purposes other than those of legal tender.

On one side 13 circles appear linked together, a small circle in the middle with the word "United States" around it, and in the center "We are one." On the other side is a dial with the hours indicated, a meridian run above it, on one side of which is the word "Fugio" and on the other the date "1787." Below the dial appears the Franklin phrase "Mind your business."

TO MAKE PEACE WITH GERMANY

Lodge Says Harding Will Move for an Agreement
of Nations

Outlines G. O. P. Program—
Coolidge Also Speaks at
"Jubilation Luncheon"

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Peace with Germany, followed by some sort of an agreement—not an alliance—to preserve the peace of the world, will be among the first acts of President-elect Harding, according to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's assurance yesterday afternoon at a "Jubilation" luncheon and reunion in the Boston City club at which Vice President-elect Coolidge was the chief guest.

Senator Lodge accompanied this assurance with the denunciation of the present national administration, in which he charged waste and extravagance, and promised his listeners that the incoming administration would not only remedy these alleged conditions, but that it would remove the defects of the present tax laws and revise the tariff. His remarks were accorded the repeated demonstrations by a gathering of nearly 1000 members who filled every available space in the dining hall and balcony.

"We have won a victory of proportion so large that I confess I can't grasp it," said Senator Lodge. "It is distinctly an American victory. We furnished the instrument and organization as in the civil war and in the fight against free silver. When you consider that the republican party carried Boston by over 30,000 and New York by over 400,000, you can see what wide support the party drew to itself."

"We shall not bring any millennium to the country. We don't promise it. One thing we can do is to bring the government back to its constitutional form and limitations under which we have lived and progressed for over 40 years. We can remedy the present tax laws and we can revise the tariff so that duty on imports will be made to pay for some of the taxes which they don't do now."

"We are the most generous people in the world. Generous as we are, we did not look with closeness upon the expenditures made by the departments, and that generosity was taken advantage of. The extravagance and waste of money which prevailed not only during the war but since it ended, must come to an end. And that, I assure you, will be done."

SAYS ONLY ONE SURE WAY
TO END PILES FOREVER

Internal Treatment Gives Absolute
Relief from All Pains and Suffering
Has Never Failed to Effect a
Cure—Guaranteed

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations along the war have proved the cause, but simply the formation.

This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years' standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice, and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. Fred Howard sells it on the money-back if dissatisfied plan.—Adv.

and remove what is technically a state of war.

"Lastly, we have brought to an end the attempt to enter into the League of Nations which Mr. Wilson brought back from Paris. That is not the only league that can be made to promote the peace of the world. One of the first duties of Mr. Harding will be to draw up an agreement looking to the preservation of the peace of the world. Call it 'entente,' 'association' or what you will—not an alliance.

"Remember, these things can't be done in a moment. You must be patient. One of the difficulties of Mr. Wilson's league is that it was finally drafted in 38 hours.

"We have no obligations at all. We gave men and money. We asked nothing when the peace councils assembled and we got nothing. We are ready to give, but to retain the right to say what we shall give, when we shall give and where we shall give."

Referring to Vice-President-elect Coolidge, Senator Lodge stated that his "wise and courageous action of last year" had made his name known throughout the country. He expressed confidence that the new vice-president will guide the debates in the senate with the capacity of intelligence he has shown in every office he has held.

The remarks of the senior senator were greeted with applause and laughter, when he declared Governor Coolidge will be relieved of the duty of casting a deciding vote in the senate, because that branch of congress will have a majority of 16 or 18 republican members.

The speaking program of the "Jubilation" gathering was opened by George H. Ellis, president of the City club. Mr. Ellis stated that the people have a right to expect of Governor Coolidge more than of previous vice-presidents. "As we understand," he said, "Mr. Harding intends to make him a member of the firm of Harding and Coolidge."

Coolidge Speaks

The introduction of Governor Coolidge as the next speaker was the signal for a demonstration lasting several minutes. He said in part:

"I don't know how I can explain the results of yesterday's election. It is of such enormous character that no one can fully comprehend it. It was an exhibition of a surprising unanimity on the part of the American people—a desire to take hold of their own government, take a hand in running it and having something to say about it in addition to making out tax returns and paying taxes."

"Our people have been patient under the conditions of the last few years. They do not like intermeddling of their affairs."

"The election resulted in the recognition of the fundamentals of our constitution. Of course, America expects to play her part among the nations of the earth, but to play it in a broad, rather than in a narrow and provincial way."

"Our splendid leader, Senator Harding, is marked with a splendid character. As he is open-minded and takes counsel, so he wants the American people to be open-minded and take counsel."

Governor-elect Cox, who is also a member of the club, spoke briefly, expressing the hope that he will justify the trust placed in him and his party.

Included in the "Jubilation" gathering were many democrats. At the head table was John Jackson Walsh, defeated democratic candidate for governorship. In a brief address he pointed to the majority given to the republican candidates in Boston and urged fair play for the Hub in legislative matters. He lauded Vice-President-elect Coolidge and was given an ovation when he declared that the majority of the people will and thereby co-operation should follow.

Governor Coolidge was escorted to the City club from the state house by members of the club, several hundred strong. The march down Beacon Hill, headed by a band, caused cheers from a crowd gathered along the route for the newly elected vice-president.

Besides the speakers, those seated at the guests' table included Alvan T. Fuller, Lieutenant-Governor-elect; Jas. Jackson, state treasurer; J. Weston Allen, attorney general; Frank B. Hall, chairman of the state republican committee; Senator Frank Allen, George S. Smith, former president of the club, and C. H. Thurber, first vice-president.

At the table facing the guest of honor were Congressmen Winslow, Larkin, Dallinger and Luce. Members of the governor's council occupied another table.

A GOOD SMELL

The Monday after the picnic you may imagine how lessons went in the Meadow Grove school. Mr. Scribble Scratch and his helpers, Nancy and Nick, were in despair, because nobody would study or work. The worst thing was that nobody seemed to care whether he learned anything or not.

HE LOOKED AS FAR AS HE COULD SEE

And the empty seats! It was as bad as circus day. One of the empty seats belonged to Chip and Nick. Chip was away. I'm sorry to have to tell you not because he had too many pickles and too much cake, nor because he'd got his feet wet, but because his eyes were too sharp, and his nose too keen at smelling.

It was this way. The day of the picnic when everybody was having a good time, racing, and throwing, and swimming, and playing games, something delicious began to tickle Chip's nose. At first he thought it was imagination, because nobody else seemed to notice it. But the tantalizing smell

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A murder mystery baffling in motive, last night confronted the police investigating the death of Leeds Young Waters, wealthy clubman of London and New York, found early yesterday in a room in the Plymouth hotel here.

Death resulted from a fractured skull caused, police believe, from blows from Waters' own cane, wielded by a man who accompanied him to the hotel Tuesday night, and who rushed from the room still carrying the walking stick a few seconds before the body was found. He left no clues upon which the police are working, finger prints on a mirror in the room and the name "James Dunn, Milwaukee," upon the hotel register.

"J. Talbot, Milwaukee," at that time, police say, he carried a gold-topped cane, and in his pockets had a gold watch, a gold cigarette case, a silver match box and some money. He also wore a diamond ring valued at $2000. The cane and money are missing.

Waters was the son of the late Horace Waters of East Greenwich, R. I., former wealthy piano manufacturer. He had been living with his mother in a Bronxville hotel since Oct. 26, when Mrs. Waters left East Greenwich to go home in company with her son. It was stated at the hotel last night that he was absent Tuesday night for the first time since his arrival.

Waters was a member of the Columbia University chapter, Delta Kappa Epsilon. It was stated here that he

DR. ZAYAS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CUBA

HAVANA, Nov. 14.—(By Associated Press)—Dr. Alfredo Zayas has been elected president of Cuba. This is based on returns received by the government from three-fourths of the voting precincts.

The figures announced yesterday by the department of communications, gave Zayas, the nominee of the old conservative or coalition party, a lead of approximately 12,000 over Gen. Jose M. Gomez, liberal.

It was the defeat four years ago of Zayas as a liberal that led Gomez, who supported him to revolt and attempt to wrest the government from President Menocal, now serving his second term. There is little fear here of another revolution, Gen. Gomez having declared that in the event of fraud he would appeal to the United States to annul the election.

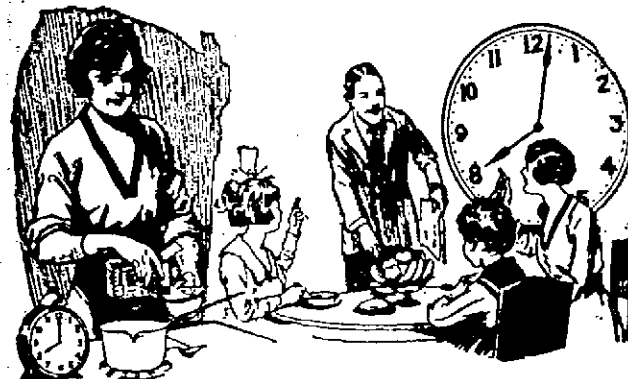

Reports to the war department showed 11 persons killed and eight wounded on election day, a record much below the average.

MARSH HILL ROAD

The sum of $18000 was appropriated at a special meeting of the voters of Dracut held in Grange hall, Centre village, Tuesday night, for the reconstruction of Marsh Hill road. The loan was made for a period of four years, the annual payments to be $2000.

MUSIC LESSONS IN THE SCHOOLS

In order to enable Lowell school children to develop their musical ability at a minimum cost, the music committee of Lowell Community Service will soon begin a music course on the piano and violin to be held after school hours in public school buildings. Trained teachers will direct the classes. Miss Gertrude O'Brien will be general supervisor of the piano classes and Mrs. Edward McKean of the violin classes. The project has been approved by the local school authorities.

The following regulations will govern the conduct of these classes:

1. These classes shall be held in such school buildings as may be designated by the superintendent and shall be under the joint direction of the supervisor of music and the chairman of the music committee of Lowell Community Service.
2. These classes shall be only for beginners between the ages of 7 and 11 inclusive who have an opportunity to practice on a piano outside of school and who have reached at least the third grade.
3. The classes shall meet weekly directly after school for not more than an hour nor less than 15 minutes.
4. There is to be a charge of 20 cents a lesson, to be paid in advance a month at a time. These fees shall go to the teacher, except occasional incidental expenses.
5. In choosing teachers, for the piano classes, members of the regular teaching staff of the city shall be given preference and shall satisfy the directors as to pianistic qualifications and ability to interest children.
6. No teacher shall admit to her class a pupil who has studied with a private teacher within a year.
7. No teacher shall accept as a private pupil during the school year, a pupil whom she has had in a public school after-school piano class.
8. No teacher shall buy or sell to her pupils at personal profit, any musical accessories. It is recommended that all music be bought through the local music dealers.

The following regulations will govern the after-school violin classes:

1. Violin classes may number up to 20 pupils. Fee, 20 cents per lesson.
2. The classes shall be taught by persons especially trained for this work. All violin class teaching shall be under the direction of the directors.
3. The regular regulations above except No. 5, will apply to the violin trial and commercial establishments.

classes as well as to the piano classes. Note: The keyboard charts for use in piano classes have been furnished through the courtesy of Richard O'Connell. Arrangements will be made to furnish complete violin outfits at a minimum price.

BOY CHESS WONDER ARRIVES IN AMERICA

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A little boy in a brown overcoat and a brown study, a very grave little boy, who is supposed to be composed chiefly of brain, was among the first half dozen passengers to leave the White Star liner Olympic when it arrived here yesterday from Southampton.

With his hands sunk deep in his pockets, his legs apart, he stood and tilted his chin to gaze upon New York city, while a portion of New York city gazed with even greater interest at him.

For he was Samuel Rzeshevski, 9 years old, the chess wonder of Europe, the child who plays 20 or 30 or 40 games of chess simultaneously against the strongest players that can be gathered to oppose him—and beats them casually.

The child is traveling with all the pomp of a visiting prize fighter. He is accompanied by his parents, his private physician and his manager, and before long he will be giving exhibitions in New York, although his program has not yet been announced.

Young as he is, he has been playing chess for four years. When he was 5 years old his father, one day evening taught him the most of the intricate game, and on the next evening it was the boy who was teaching his father, giving his parent the best kind of instruction, which is a beating.

Since then he has beaten the strong club players of the European capitals, and expert critics who have studied the odds recorded game, declared that even the masters of the game, winners of national championships, could not give odds to the child—at least not greater odds than pawn and move.

AGAINST SOVIET GOVERNMENT

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The first congress of sheep shepherds recently held here refused to go on record as favoring the soviet government of Russia. There was a sharp clash between the communists and independent socialists over the question but the motion was voted down. About 1000 delegates attended the meeting.

who are now given an active voice in administration of them, were impressed in the congress with the need of conserving raw products so that Germany may produce sufficient finished commodities to enable her to establish credits abroad with which to pay for the importation of the most necessary food and raw materials.

Rudolph Wissel, formerly minister of economics, said that German textile and iron industries were in need of foreign supplies. The 25,000,000 tons of ore which Germany formerly obtained from Alsace-Lorraine and Luxembourg must now be procured through foreign credits. The Versailles treaty had deprived the nation of one-third of its grain producing areas while the remaining soil had been impoverished by intensified wartime cultivation and lack of fertilizers.

The former minister ascribed the present economic crisis to under-production, denying that it was due to over-consumption, and he declared that Germany would be forced to subsist on small rations for a long time.

French government employees, numbering 228, have been arrested, dismissed or suspended in connection with the sale of left-over American, British and French war stocks.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Really and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LIEUT. COL. STEVENS

REPLIES TO DUANE

Appropos to the controversy relative to members of the Lowell post of the American Legion, charged by State Commander James T. Duane, with violating the legion regulations governing participation in politics, Lieut. Col. Stevens has sent the following letter to Mr. Duane:

Nov. 2, 1920.
Mr. James T. Duane, Commander, Massachusetts Department, American Legion, Boston, Mass.

Sir: In the fifth congressional district the opposing candidates are both members of the American Legion. One of these candidates, Jackson Palmer, has seriously misrepresented his opponent John Jacob Rogers, by stating at public rallies and in a campaign circular that Mr. Rogers agreed to vote for the bonus and then voted against the bonus. This statement is untrue.

A number of Lowell ex-service men and members of the Lowell post of the American Legion, of whom I was one, therefore signed a circular appealing to the service men of the fifth congressional district to re-elect Congressman Rogers as the friend of the service man, as an ex-service man, personally believe that Mr. Rogers has done as much for the service man as any member of congress, in support of which statement I refer you to the three letters quoted in the circular from prominent legion officials thanking Mr. Rogers for his efforts in behalf of the ex-service men and members of the legion. Two of the letters quoted are from your own adjutant at state headquarters.

The circular which we issued was signed by 12 individual citizens of the commonwealth of Massachusetts and not as ex-service members of the legion. We appealed to the service men to re-elect Mr. Rogers as the friend of the service man, not to the legion men as the friend of the legion. We were willing to admit in a body of the circular that we were legion men, but we did not as legion men ask the vote of legion men.

You, however, have apparently given to the newspapers a copy of a letter sent to one of us, condemning our action and stating that we have "violated the constitution of the American Legion." I would like to ask you, sir, whether you usually, as state commander of the legion, have a circular state that I have violated that constitution and to condemn me personally, or is it a prerogative of the state executive committee of which you are but one member?

I have not yet received notice to appear before the executive committee for a hearing to which I believe I am entitled. Have not you, Mr. Commander, made a statement that I am guilty before my case is heard which has exactly the same effect as if a judge or a jury stated to the press that a man was guilty before he has been tried?

Furthermore, Mr. Commander, you have stated that "any congressman who does not support the legislation presented by this organization (referring to the bonus bill) cannot be termed a friend of the organization."

You have given this statement to the newspapers on the eve of the election. Are you not, in effect, asking the members of the legion in the fifth congressional district to vote against Congressman Rogers? Are you not, as state commander, taking part in politics as much as we?

Mr. Commander, if I have not the right, as a citizen of this commonwealth, to sign my name to a campaign circular in favor of any other good citizen to admit in the body of that circular that I am a member of the American Legion, as I might also have admitted that I am a member of the Yankee Division Veterans association, I regret to state that I must prefer to be dropped as a member of the American Legion that I may retain my rights as a free American citizen granted me under the constitution of the United States. Yours respectfully,

CHARLES A. STEVENS.

DEATH RATE MAY BE SLIGHTLY HIGHER

The local death rate for 1920 will be slightly higher than was the rate for 1919 if the mortality reports for the remaining two months of this year show the same numerical trend as the average for the first ten months of the year.

The death rate for 1919, based on a population of 101,978, the population given this city by the 1915 state census, was 15.82 per 1000. The death rate for this year, up to Nov. 1, based on the federal census population of 112,750, is 15.91 per 1000.

So far this year there have been 1495 deaths while in the first ten months of last year there were 1465 deaths. The number of deaths per month has been as follows:

	1920	1919
January	113	233
February	128	187
March	207	163
April	159	150
May	133	117
June	104	105
July	130	112
August	105	147
September	136	114
October	142	130
Totals	1495	1165

There has also been an increase in infant mortality this year compared with a year ago. Six months so far in 1920 have shown a greater infant mortality than the corresponding months of 1919. The first six months have been February, March, April, May, September and October.

The total number of deaths of children under one year old in the beginning of the present year up to Nov. 1 has been 337 while during the same period last year only 322 deaths of children less than a year old were reported.

The Chalifoux Employees' Mutual Benefit association held a very interesting meeting at the close of the store last evening and unanimously voted to hold a masquerade and dance at Associate hall Wednesday evening, November 17th. Everyone will dress in costume and no one will be allowed on the floor unless masked. Last year a very delightful party of a similar nature was held and it proved to be a complete success. The following officers were chosen manager Mr. William Soule; assistant manager, Miss Jeanette Cote, floor director, Mr. Alfred A. Burns, assistant floor director, Miss Irene Leclacheur; aids, members of the association.

Both machines were slightly damaged, but no one was injured.

Claims Ruin of Business

Continued
ward Cawley, Horne Coal company and Daniel T. Sullivan.
The ad damnum named in the case is $35.63.
Seldom has the Lowell court room seen a more imposing array of legal talent than was assembled to try the case before Judge Bishop and a jury. Albert A. Schaeffer of Boston appeared for James J. Storrow, Dennis J. Murphy for Daniel T. Sullivan, W. D. Rekan for Edward Cawley, Larkin T. Trull for the Horne Coal company, and F. N. Wier for the members of the Lowell fuel committee. Henry V. Charbonneau represented the plaintiff.

Started 20 Years Ago

Henry V. Charbonneau said in opening for the plaintiff that the action was one of tort to recover damages from the defendants for putting the plaintiff out of the coal business. He described the starting of the business of Mr. Lajole 20 years ago, and of its growth until he was selling 15,000 tons of coal a year. He said that in January, 1918 the plaintiff had 5600 tons of coal on hand, that he was the only fuel dealer in Lowell with a supply and that all of the coal of the plaintiff had been ordered by customers. He said there had been sharp competition between the local fuel merchants. He asserted that the defendants not only took away Mr. Lajole's coal and gave it to his competitors, but that they prevented his getting a new supply of fuel.

The attorney said it would be the contention of the plaintiff that neither Mr. Storrow, the federal fuel administrator nor the Lowell administrators were public officials within the meaning of the law. He said the defendants conspired to put the plaintiff out of business because he had a large supply of coal while his competitors had none.

"Meat of the Case"

Charles Lajole, the plaintiff, was the first witness called to the stand. He said he went into the coal business in Lowell in 1899. In 1918 he was in business in Gorham street. From April 1, 1918, to April 1, 1917, he sold 13,000 tons of coal. The witness said he stopped selling fuel the last day of February, 1918.

Objection was offered by Albert A. Schaeffer, counsel for James J. Storrow, to a question by the plaintiff's counsel asking if the date of his retirement was not February 23, 1918. Referring to the date, Mr. Schaeffer said, "That is the meat of the case."

Mr. Lajole's testimony was interrupted to permit the reading of replies to interrogations made by defendants. It was admitted that cars loaded with coal consigned to the plaintiff had been directed to other dealers. It was denied that any direct instructions regarding the handling of the local fuel situation had been received from James J. Storrow, although it was admitted that such instructions had been received from the central fuel administration office of which Mr. Storrow was the head. It was brought out that the records of the Lowell fuel administrators are in the hands of the United States district attorney in Boston.

Denies Direct Instructions
Mr. Storrow denied in reply to interrogations that he had furnished any direct instructions to the Lowell fuel administration, or that he had any knowledge of re-consignments of coal.

Mr. Lajole, resuming his testimony, identified a letter that he had received from John M. O'Donoghue, chairman of the Lowell fuel committee, in which a list was given of numerous cars of coal consigned to the plaintiff, that had been offered diverted to other dealers.
Mr. Lajole said that his coal plant covered an area of over 2,000 square feet, and that January 1, 1918, he had about 5000 tons of coal on hand and more ordered and on the railroad bound for Lowell. He testified that after he had unloaded three cars of coal Daniel T. Sullivan came to his yard and took it away. He said that Sullivan screened the coal and took away the same number of tons of screened coal as was credited as coming in each car unscreened.

BOLSHEVSKI ATTACKING WRANGEL'S LINE

SEBASTOPOL, Nov. 3. (By Associated Press.)—Bolshevik troops are successfully attacking the line held by Gen. Wrangel's army south of Perekop. The soviet army is battering at the seven-mile trench system which extends east and west across the narrow neck of land leading to the Crimean peninsula, but Gen. Wrangel's position is quite strong. It has on its left the Gulf of Perekop and on its right the Gulf of Sivash, or Putrid sea. Back of his main lines, he has heavy armor guns and other artillery. The town of Perekop which has been occupied by the Bolsheviks, is a mass of ruins.

PLEA FOR A "SQUARE DEAL" IN INDUSTRY

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The Rev. James J. Corrigan, S. J., made a strong plea for a "square deal" in industry before an audience of the Young Men's Catholic association in the Boston college high school building on James street last night.

The speaker declared, "With the elections out of the way, all should pull together now for industrial prosperity. A return of good will and confidence all around is what our industrial life needs just at present. There has been too much recrimination and suspicion," continued the lecturer. "The point of view that we all need to get is the public good, which includes not merely the interests of employer and employee, but the welfare of every man, woman and child in the commonwealth."

The Boston college professor declared that there has been too much of group-interest in industrial life, and this must give way to the public welfare. He likewise stated that the "class and mass" idea in America is threatening industrial peace at the present time. "The one thing which is guaranteed by our social system is the guarantee of equality of opportunity," said Mr. Corrigan. "That must be kept open to all, not as an abstract theory, but as a real concrete blessing."

"There is no place for an oppressive caste system in the United States of America. No foreigner, on the other hand, who comes to this country has a right to blame all his failures upon the social system of America. In the social system of his own land, the man at the bottom may never have had a chance to come to the top. In America, he has. American equality of opportunity makes the difference. It must be kept so by the square deal and the principles of fairness."

Further Corrigan declared that the "square deal" in industry recognizes "men as men and not mere machines," and more than a means of accumulating wealth. "From the workers, the square deal creed requires that they give honestly applied energy, constructive thought and effort to reduce costs, regular and dependable service, the elimination of idleness, indifference, restriction of output and poor workmanship."

Present Attitude Menace
Concluding, the speaker said: "The present belittling attitude of capital and labor is full of menace for all of us. The 'junkers' in both camps should be curbed. Now is the time for American industry and all parties to it to subscribe to the creed of the 'square deal,' and the promotion of industrial peace."

PARENTS AND TEACHERS
The parents and teachers of the Bartlett school district held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. Following the business meeting a group of first grade children, under the direction of Miss Essie Roche, entertained the assembly. I. L. Lambert, president of the district, presented Mrs. A. W. Sandwall of the state department of health, who spoke on "The Diet of the School Child." Rarely do mothers and teachers have the opportunity of hearing such a helpful, practical discussion of such an important subject. Tea was served by the domestic science department.

FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE
Henry F. Jernan and Anthony Phornan have filed their nomination papers with the election commission as candidates for the school committee.

Educators declare that it costs much more to educate the boy than it does a girl, largely because of a boy's tendency to destructiveness.

PROBATIONERS PAID OVER MILLION

Probation officers in Massachusetts collected more than $1,000,000 during the year ending Sept. 30 last, according to a statement issued last evening from the office of the state commission on probation.

The exact amount, omitting three small courts which have not yet reported to the commission, was $1,030,478, an increase over last year of $223,726, and the largest annual gain since the service was established.

Rapid and Constant Gain

The statement contains comparative figures showing a rapid and constant gain from 1900, in which year the total was $49,067, the gain, according to the commission, being a reflection of the expanding work in the domestic relation cases. The largest item is support collections amounting to $630,000 in the last year, an increase of $194,147 over 1919, while 11 years ago the total was $75,258.

The $330,000 was largely made up of payments made by persons adjudged guilty of family desertion, with lesser amounts from the fathers of illegitimate children and for the support of indigent parents, all under orders of court, requiring a specific weekly payment. The money is paid over to the families, without expense to them.

Under requirements by the court that restitution be made to persons whose property has been stolen or damaged, the officers collected and paid $115,557 the past year. The items were largely made up of collections made in juvenile cases. In 1900 the amount of restitution was $60,564.

The remaining $134,957, fines collected by probation officers in lieu of commitment of the defendant who has been sentenced to pay a fine and is unable to pay at the time of sentence, shows a decline this year as compared with last. The amount, $52,541, is relatively small, but the decline is a reflection, the statement points out, of the effect of prohibition.

Cost of Service Reduced

The total cost of probation service in the commonwealth fell below $350,000, making it less than a third of the amount collected, all of which goes to relief of the public. The largest collections in the state were in the Suffolk municipal court, $131,013, the Suffolk superior being second with $120,212. The collections in the Suffolk county courts amount to $10,564, in which the probation collectors exceed $10,000 are as follows: Middlesex superior, $57,613; Lynn district, $18,007; Springfield police, $18,759; New Bedford district, $35,661; Salem district, $32,825; Worcester district, $31,307; Cambridge district, $27,079; Fall River district, $23,533; Malden district, $23,533; Lowell district, $23,361; Lawrence district, $21,911; Essex superior, $21,824; Brockton police, $20,143; Quincy district, $16,467; Worcester superior, $15,095; Berkshire central district (Pittsfield), $17,102; Newton police, $15,111; southern superior (Wareham), $14,000; Duxbury (Wareham), $10,839; southeastern superior (Norfolk, Plymouth), $10,665; Somerville police, $10,628.

FINED FOR KEEPING WATERED MILK

David Jarman, a farmer of Dracut, was arraigned in police court this morning and fined $50 for keeping watered milk with intent to sell. Just sell "watered" milk, Jarman was fined $50 on a similar complaint. State milk inspectors were the prosecuting officers.

Elphage Chicoine, charged with non-support of his wife, was found guilty and ordered to five months in the house of correction. Defendant pleaded guilty. Court ruled that although Chicoine did send a letter to his wife in this city telling her that he would live with her again that would not justify non-support because he did not visit his wife personally. The wife refused to come to live with her husband. William E. Kennerly of Nashua, N. H., charged with drunkenness and driving an auto so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public, was granted a continuance.

DOCTORS DIDN'T HELP HER SICKLY CHILD

Strong and Healthy Now. Mother Says Milk Emulsion Saved Its Life

"Last May, my three-year-old baby was taken very ill, got so bad that we expected her to die at any time. I had four doctors but they did not know what ailed her and finally I was told to give her Milk Emulsion. She had been sick about six months when I started giving her Milk Emulsion. I noticed results from the first and by the time she had taken 21 bottles she was as healthy as a horse. I am thankful to say Milk Emulsion saved her life."—Mrs. Willis S. Pitts, Nacogdoches, Texas.

For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milk Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it, because it really makes emulsions and tonics. It really makes emulsions and tonics.

Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all signs of indigestion. It quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended for all children who have weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion. It will give you a new lease on life, bring you home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price, 75c and $1.00 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by F. W. Howard and all first class druggists.—Adv.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents
MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
What is claimed to be one of the most extraordinary productions of the season is now playing at the Merrimack Square Theatre. The unusualness lies chiefly in the plot and the heroine. The plot is "Sins of Rosamond." Ethel Clayton, who is starred in the play, is a woman with virtually a dual personality. In her infancy by a native Italian woman with an insatiable craving for bright colors, she was brought to later life and not only evolves the heroine in a dangerous diamond smuggling alliance, but nearly wrecks the romance. The play is a "Forbidden Valley," a Kentucky romance with an international twist. A comedy, the international New York Times travel picture and the Hilarious Digest round out the bill.

H. F. KELTH'S THEATRE

A snappy, zippy, dancing and comedy show has been brought to Merrimack Square by the H. F. Kelth Theatre. The show is a combination of real vaudeville with not slow to take advantage of it. Just like a man, in which Grace Huff, the star, and Co., appear in a wholly unusual comedy. Wanger & Palmer in their character skit are one of the best entertainers in the city. The Golden Gate Trio offer a new dancing act. Dave Roth is most versatile; Cole & Mason are positive hits at dancing and comedy, and Pella & Davis offer a new and interesting turn. The Ovandos are Spanish xylophonists.

OPERA HOUSE

"Friendly Enemies," the play for the week at the Opera House is drawing capacity audiences at every performance. The reason for it is because of the worth of the play itself, as well as the treatment of it by the engaging actors. The story is a most finished presentation seen in local stock theatres in a long time. You will surely like the production for its entertaining value, and you should highly approve the way the story is being acted. THE STRAND

"A man may be down but he is never out" is the slogan of the Salvation Army, and it applies equally as well to "The Price of Redemption," the big serial film offering with Bert Lytell in the leading role which is shown at The Strand for the first time today. The story is that of a young Englishman who sinks to the depths of degradation and then redeems himself. The picture portrays life in far-off India, where in English garrisons and native villages, the hero distinguishes himself as the hero of Fort Akbar, and then sounds the depths of all evil ways among the native group-servants' huts and opium dens. The story is a most finished presentation seen in local stock theatres in a long time. You will surely like the production for its entertaining value, and you should highly approve the way the story is being acted.

RIALTO THEATRE

Justice Johnson in "Blackbirds" is the big attraction that will be seen at the Rialto theatre for the first time today and Saturday of the week. It is a Realart production and is the story of a clique of picture thieves who use a petty society of thieves for the purpose of procuring the famous drawings. Miss Johnson plays the part of the "go-between" in a perfectly natural way and attracts the most favorable comment. The picture is a western thriller, "The Square Shooter," a Chester comedy, "The Big Show" and the Fox News.

WORCESTER MAN BUYS HILDRETH BUILDING

Negotiations are under way for the sale of the Hildreth building or, in other words, the transfer of the shares of the Hildreth Estate Trust association, which are now being held by Charles Brown of Providence and Jas. D. Brown of Lawrence, as trustees, to Horace Taylor of Worcester. The Hildreth building, which was formerly owned by the Hildreth heirs, was sold to Charles and James Brown some time ago and at that time the Hildreth Trust association was formed. The building was assessed at that time for $102,000, but this year the assessors raised the valuation to $145,000. It is expected final papers in the transaction will be signed today or tomorrow.

Harding Now Has 390 Votes

Republicans had a plurality of 131. Late returns also indicated possible turnovers in case of some democratic representatives reported elected. A notable instance was in New York, where three republican candidates reported defeated—Ryan in the 15th district, Anson in the 21st, and Rose in the 23rd. McGovern and McKinney, earlier reported elected.

One Socialist in House

The House will have one socialist member—Myer London of New York who defeated Henry Goldfogel, fusion candidate in the 12th. The prohibition party lost its lone representative, but an independent prohibitionist, Milton W. Y. Shreve, was elected from the 25th Pennsylvania district.

Ex-Senator Clark Seaten

Several notable upsets occurred in the congressional race—among them the retirement by Missouri voters of former Speaker Clark of the house, and the election by Texas voters of a republican representative—Harry Waurbach.

Bryan Makes Statement

Post election developments within the ranks of the beaten democratic party included a tart statement from William F. Duff, who he divided blame for the defeat between President Wilson and Candidate Cox, asserting that the former had "laid the foundation for the disaster" and the latter had "completed the structure."

Against Beer and Wine

Wayne B. Wheeler, legislative counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of America, issued a statement declaring a check of the congressional election in 40 states showed a substantial majority in both houses against any beer or wines amendment.

The Electoral Vote

Returns early today showed the following states had given their electoral votes to Mr. Harding: California 13; Colorado 6; Illinois 29; Indiana 15; Iowa 13; Kansas 10; Maine 6; Maryland 8; Massachusetts 18; Michigan 16; Minnesota 12; Missouri 18; Nebraska 4; New Hampshire 4; New Jersey 14; New York 45; Ohio 24; Oklahoma 10; Oregon 5; Pennsylvania 33; Rhode Island 4; South Dakota 5; Tennessee 12; Utah 4; Vermont 3; Washington 7; West Virginia 5; Wisconsin 12; Montana 4, and Wyoming 3—a total of 390.

Governor Cox had safely, the following: Alabama 12; Arkansas 9; Florida 10; Georgia 13; Kentucky 13, Louisiana 10; Mississippi 10; North Carolina 12; South Carolina 12; Texas 20, and Virginia 12—a total of 127.

States still in the doubtful list, lacking insufficient returns, were: Arizona 3; Nevada 3; New Mexico 3; and North Dakota 5—a total of 14.

Results in Minneapolis

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—In the seventh congressional district, Representative A. J. Volstead, republican, had a slight lead over Rev. O. J. K. Volstead, independent, endorsed by the Non-Partisan League.

Latson, republican, was several hundred ahead of Carr, democratic incumbent, in the eighth. The eighth district elected republicans.

Woman Elected Sheriff

ROSCOMMON, Mich., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Jane Johnson, republican, has been elected sheriff of Roscommon county. She defeated Walter Gardner, democrat.

Close Race in Nevada

RENO, Nev., Nov. 4.—Returns from every county in Nevada today gave Tasker I. Odde, republican, a lead of 107 over Senator Charles B. Henderson, the democratic incumbent. Practical complete figures give: Odde 10,636; Henderson 9559; Anne Marlin, independent, 1921.

Democrats Lead in New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 4.—Scattered returns from over the state showed a slight lead for democratic candidates for president, congress and governor. Headquarters of both major parties claimed the final returns would show victory.

Oklahoma Republican

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 4.—Oklahoma swung safely into the republican column today on returns from 2000 of the 2683 precincts in the state. It appeared that the state would split its congressional delegation, probably even.

A tabulation of 1974 precincts out of 2583 for president gave a republican majority of 8313, the vote being: Harding 12,313; Cox 162,800. For United States senator 2043 precincts gave a republican majority of 17,537.

E. Senator Smith Defeated

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 4.—With more than three-fourth of all precincts tabulated, Ralph H. Cameron republican, apparently has defeated United States Senator Marcus A. Smith, for re-election. Cameron holds a lead of 6003 votes.

Carl Hayden, apparently has been returned to congress. Governor Campbell, republican, holds a lead of 3500 votes for re-election.

North Dakota

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 4.—Close contests for United States senator and governor were shown on returns available here today. Dr. E. F. Ladd, republican non-partisan, took the lead for senator from H. H. Perry, democrat, with 1556 of the state's 2001 precincts still missing. Ladd had 16,507 and Perry 11,736.

Although rural returns were gradually cutting down his margin, J. P. T. O'Connor, democrat, still led Governor Lynn J. Frasier, republican non-partisan by more than $500 votes in the gubernatorial race. Early yesterday O'Connor's lead was more than 19,000. There are 656 precincts yet to be heard from.

Berger Illness Women

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—Victor Berger, socialist today laid out his bid in his contest for congress to the fact that women were voting for the first time in Milwaukee.

"Woman suffrage at first always helps reaction because the well-to-do women will always vote while the working class women do not vote as a matter."

"Woman suffrage eventually will prove to be one of the greatest weapons of democracy in existence."

Miller Defeats Gov. Smith

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Revised returns from all but 121 of the 1303 districts of the state, tabulated early today, gave Nathan Miller, republican, a plurality of 63,275 over Governor Alfred E. Smith in the gubernatorial contest. The vote was: Miller 1,137,556; Smith 1,074,281.

Harding Now Has 390 Votes

Republicans had a plurality of 131. Late returns also indicated possible turnovers in case of some democratic representatives reported elected. A notable instance was in New York, where three republican candidates reported defeated—Ryan in the 15th district, Anson in the 21st, and Rose in the 23rd. McGovern and McKinney, earlier reported elected.

Latest From Tennessee

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 4.—On the face of returns compiled by newspapers from practically the entire state, Senator Harding early today had a lead of approximately 10,000 votes over Governor Cox, and seemed assured of Tennessee's 12 electoral votes.

Figures tabulated by the Memphis Commercial Appeal from all but 60 of the precincts in 93 of the 95 counties in the state gave Harding a plurality of 9977, and showed Col. Alf. Taylor, republican candidate for governor, leading his democratic opponent, Governor Roberts, by 37,197 votes.

The Commercial Appeal's tabulation did not include Marion and Bledsoe counties, both in the eastern part of the state. Both of these counties are considered safely republican.

The Commercial Appeal totals were: Harding 135,759; Cox 135,752; Taylor 168,144; Roberts 161,917.

Returns from 93 counties compiled by the Knoxville Journal and Tribune gave Harding a lead of 10,501 and Taylor a plurality of 39,477.

The result of the congressional races in the Third and Eighth districts was in doubt. Complete returns from eight counties in the third district gave Brown (R) 2755 majority over John A. Mason, democratic incumbent. Republicans estimated that missing counties would increase Brown's lead by at least 500 votes.

In the eighth district, Lon A. Scott, republican, and Gordon Browning, democrat, were running neck and neck.

Big Gain for Republicans

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 4.—With Champ Clark defeated by T. W. Hucklede of Warrenton, Mo., indications today were that the republicans would gain eight members of the house from Missouri. Ten republicans seemed sure of election.

There was a close race in Jackson county (Kansas City). Democrat, Clark defeated by T. W. Hucklede of Warrenton, Mo., indications today were that the republicans would gain eight members of the house from Missouri. Ten republicans seemed sure of election.

In seven districts, democratic congressmen, who are candidates for re-election, are trailing their republican opponents and in the fourth district, Gabbert, the democratic nominee, is running behind Faust, republican, for the seat vacated by C. F. Hooper, democrat.

Chamberlain Faces Defeat

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—Robert N. Stanfield, republican candidate for United States senator, increased his lead over the democratic incumbent, George E. Chamberlain, in returns tabulated today.

Returns from 1351 precincts of 1699 in the state gave Stanfield 56,372, and Chamberlain 53,593.

BRITISH COMMENT ON HARDING'S ELECTION

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The leading British newspaper writers consider the election of Senator Harding as an indication that the electorate is tired of "one man rule."

The Liverpool Post says: "Senator Harding goes to the White House as the representative of a profound belief, long maturing among the larger part of the nation, that Wilsonism is alien to American traditions and that America should not entangle herself in the affairs of distracted Europe."

The Yorkshire Post considers it a good thing in the present difficult phase of its national history that the United States should have elected the candidate it did. It says: "Senator Harding's aim, at least, is already defined. He wishes to help the world so far as he can honorably do without the approval of congress and without compromising American interests."

"We believe we interpret European as well as British opinion when we say that an American government which stands for its own country first, last and for all time will be under."

stood and appreciated in this old world of ours which has lost its illusions and is no longer in a mood to strain after visionary politics.

The Manchester Guardian says: "The main political motive for the election of Harding is by general assent accumulated dislike of Wilsonism and not love of Harding and his party. The national reputation marks a tragic change from those weeks in the autumn of 1918, when the material power of America was deciding the world war, and her foremost mind was leading the world towards such a peace as might have given us a tranquil, swiftly-convalescent world, instead of the present world's fair of apples, greeds and suspicions between nations and disunion inside each of them. The cold, scarred old world of international politics seemed to be on the eve of redemption on the day when the news came that Germany would surrender on the basis of Wilson's 11 points.

"In what proportions a want of dynamic genius in President Wilson and an irredeemable viciousness of spirit in other politicians contributed to darken that opening prospect, we cannot tell yet. It is gone now. Europe is snarling, grabbing and jockeying in the old slime, while all the remaining effect of Wilsonism in America is the decision of the presidential election by an overwhelming balance of public antipathy to it. The story is that of one of the most pitiful of all failures in the execution of a task nobly conceived."

CHAMP CLARK LOSES HIS SEAT IN HOUSE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Champ Clark, veteran and former speaker of the house of representatives, to which he has been elected more times than the average voter can remember, last night surrendered, his post to T. W. Hukriede of Warrenton, Mo., young republican candidate in the ninth Missouri district.

Facing a handicap of 5,000 votes, with five-sixths of the precincts in his district—including democratic strongholds—Mr. Clark sent a telegram to Hukriede congratulating him "on his victory." Two hundred and twenty of the 268 precincts had given Hukriede a vote of 10,421 to Clark's 25,679 before backers of the incumbent admitted he had lost.

Even then Clark refused to talk to reporters. He remained at home most of the day, confident of victory, while returns from republican counties piled up leads for his opponent. As county after county which ordinarily chose Clark as its representative sent in reports which showed he was pulling a smaller vote than ever before, it became apparent his hope lay in his home district, Pike county. Pike gave Clark one of his best votes in history—5,165, to 2,881 for Hukriede—but it was not enough.

Not until his friends came to him with virtually complete returns and assurances of defeat did the Clark household believe it would be defeated.

Mr. Clark was first elected in 1893. It 1895 he was not chosen but in 1897 he again was the choice of his district and has represented it ever since.

In 1912 he was considered a favorite for the democratic nomination for president, but lost to Woodrow Wilson after a long fight, primarily

SEVEN BARKS

Nearly half a century is a long time to faithfully serve the public, but that is what SEVEN BARKS, one of nature's greatest remedies to mankind, has been doing.

SEVEN BARKS has not been extensively advertised, but has enjoyed a wonderful and steady sale for many, many years, and purely upon its merits.

To those who may not be acquainted with the value of SEVEN BARKS we would say that it is absolutely a harmless and remarkable remedy, made from the extracts of different kinds of roots and herbs, every one of which has great medicinal value, scientifically blended, and for many, many years has been a reliable remedy for indigestion, constipation, liver, kidney and stomach disorders.

SEVEN BARKS has saved thousands of families large doctor's bills, as well as untold suffering. It is inexpensive—only 60 cents per bottle—which will last a long time, as the dose is from 15 to 20 drops in a little water after meals.

There is hardly a family but what some member is more or less frequently troubled with biliousness, indigestion, liver or kidney disorder. If you have never tried SEVEN BARKS, do not fail to do so, and watch the rapid and wonderful results.

through a break with William Jennings Bryan.

In 1916 Mr. Clark had a close call, his opponent apparently having been elected according to early returns, only to lose the lead in the complete returns.

Most of the precincts which have not yet reported gave Mr. Clark an even break in 1916, while a few gave him a bare majority.

WILSON AND COX BLAMED BY BRYAN

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 4.—William J. Bryan placed what he termed the blame for democratic defeat about equally between President Wilson and Governor Cox in a statement made here last evening. The president, he said, "laid the foundation for the disaster and the governor completed the structure."

"The American people want the government to play its part in the abolition of war but they are indifferent as to whether we are a part of a league or part of an association of nations," the statement said. "The real issue presented by the democratic party was not whether we should co-operate with other nations interested in peace, but whether we should assume a moral obligation which had no weight except as it suspended the right of congress to act independently. The nation will do its part in aiding to prevent war but it will not surrender into the keeping of any foreign group the right to determine when we shall declare war."

"Governor Cox instead of repairing the injury done by the president, aggravated the situation by the manner in which he avoided domestic issues and misrepresented the position of the republican party on the league issue, which he declared to be paramount."

HARDING'S ELECTION PLEASES THE "DRYS"

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The election of Senator Harding is more pleasing to prohibitionists than the election of Cox would have been, Chairman Hinchey of the prohibition national committee said yesterday.

"It is because of his recent public statement made to the national temperance council that he would use whatever power he possessed to prevent the re-establishment of intoxicating liquors, and also his statement that his future action on prohibition should be interpreted by his vote upon the 18th amendment and the Volstead law," Mr. Hinchey said.

The prohibition party through Chairman Hinchey, yesterday sent the following message to Senator Harding:

"We congratulate you upon your great victory. You have been elected president of all the American people and we pledge you our earnest support in the enforcement of all law and the constitution and in helping you to prevent the re-establishment of intoxicating lines in accordance with the policy asserted by you to the national temperance council, representing all prohibition, temperance and church organizations."

GIRL PAYS HEROIC ELECTION BET

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 4.—Miss Rose Starling, an athletic young woman and ardent democrat, paid a heroic election bet on Gov. Cox's defeat yesterday when she dived 40 feet from Portland bridge and swam a third of a mile through the icy waters of the harbor to the float of the Portland Yacht club.

She was in the water 23 minutes. When Miss Starling leaped from the bridge yesterday afternoon in the presence of 2500 persons, she miscalculated the distance and struck flat on her stomach. She was stunned and feebly cried for help while the horrified crowd thought she had been killed.

Before a boat could reach her, however, the plucky girl recovered and refusing assistance swam away. Only one Harding supporter, a high school boy athlete, had taken Miss Starling's dare to perform the stunt in case the republican candidate was beaten.

GOV. COX PLANS TRIP ABROAD

DATTON, O., Nov. 4.—Governor Cox, the defeated presidential candidate, looking forward to the time he will surrender his state office in January, announced last night that he was considering a trip abroad early next year to study conditions in Europe. Meanwhile, he said, he planned to work and rest, leaving here for the state capital on Friday, and starting the middle of next week for a hunting trip in Mississippi. Yesterday found the governor apparently in the same philosophical mental state as when he watched the returns last night, bringing in continuous unfavorable news. His smile was still apparent last night and the mass of telegrams seemed unanimous in declaring he made a "good fight."

The governor's first act yesterday was to send a congratulatory message to Senator Harding, the presidential elect, in which he volunteered "as a citizen" to support the nation's chief executive in "whatever emergency might arise."

No formal statement was made by the governor over the election result and his newspaper commenting editorially did not attempt to analyze the returns. It was the governor's message to Senator Harding that carried the defeated candidate's concession of his defeat. Little in the belated returns yesterday served to soften the sting of defeat. For the first time in the governor's political career his home county of Montgomery, including this city, went against him, Harding carrying it by about 5000. Middletown, where he lived as a boy, also went to Senator Harding by five votes, but the county itself gave a comfortable edge to the governor.

"I have not had a chance to travel much," the governor said last night. "I began to work quite young and I think I'll soon go to Europe to study conditions there."

The governor's voice seemed rather husky, worse than at any time during his long campaign, and he explained that "it must be due to a letdown of the vocal cords."

The governor divided his time yesterday between his home here and his farm at Jacksonburg, the place of his birth. While at the farm he helped the farm workers husk corn. Mrs. Cox was with him during the day and last night they scanned the many messages received at their home, Senator Hittcock of Nebraska, the administration leader in the treaty fight, wired, "It is better to lose in a cause that is right than to win in a cause that is wrong."

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Wide openings in Southern Pacific and Reading were featured at the outset of today's stock market. A block of 5000 Southern Pacific changed hands at 11 1/2 to 11 3/4, while 4000 Reading sold from 103 to 103 1/2, the latter value representing an overnight loss of a small fraction. Other active rails, embracing the Pacific, Granger, coal and cotton groups, were higher by fractions to one point, except Canadian Pacific, which lost 1/2 point. Shipbuilding and cotton also improved, but Mexican Petroleum, Crucible Steel, International Paper and Sears, Roebuck denoted pressure. A rise from Reading, rails forced steadily ahead in heavy trading of the first hour. Southern Pacific made a new high for the movement at 113 1/2, Union Pacific and Great Northern, each two points, each. Louisville, Nashville and Delaware 2 1/2, while Jersey Central was conspicuous for a 2 1/2 point advance on relatively few transactions. Railway equipments strengthened with Mexican Petroleum, but Royal Dutch, United Fruit, Marine, Gulf States Steels were heavy. Profit-taking caused a reversal in rails before noon of 1 to 2 points. Call money was unchanged at 3 1/2 and foreign exchange was lower with a new minimum for the Italian rate. The reaction assumed wider proportions at mid-day when prominent industrial, especially independent steel, showed extreme losses of 2 to 4 points. Rails also continued to yield and the heavier specialties included Industrial Alliance and Laclede, which fell 1 1/2 points, and American Locomotive, Northern Pacific and Great Northern, made further gains. The closing was irregular.

8 KILLED IN RACE CLASH

Former Service Men Patrol
Streets of Orlando, Fla., to Prevent Outbreaks

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 4.—Former service men patrolled the streets of Orlando and nearby towns throughout the night to prevent renewal of the race clash which is known to have resulted in the death of Ocoee Tuesday night of two white men and six negroes. Quiet prevailed early today and the authorities said they did not expect any further outbreak.

Deputy sheriffs who were called to Ocoee by the riot which was the outgrowth of the election, said they believed the death toll would exceed eight. They said they were convinced the bodies of several negroes would be found in the ruins of 25 houses destroyed by fire.

The battle between white citizens and negroes followed an attempt on the part of a negro to vote. He was denied the privilege by election officials on the ground that he had not paid his poll tax.

It is reported, while citizens believed a crowd of negroes intended to attack them and shooting resulted.

HARDING CELEBRATION IN MARION TONIGHT

MARION, O., Nov. 4.—With only two days remaining before he leaves Marion for a month's vacation trip, President-elect Harding went to work today clearing up his desk of the final left over details of his campaign.

With Mrs. Harding he will start at 7:30 Saturday morning for Point Isabel, Tex., where he will spend 12 days hunting and fishing prior to a voyage to the Panama canal zone. He plans to be back in Marion Dec. 6, and after that may go to some golf coast resort for a winter to be spent in choosing his cabinet and formulating the policies of his administration.

Except for an engagement made several months ago to speak on Dec. 5, in Bedford, Va., at an Elks' memorial service, he has no appointments for public speeches between now and inauguration. He may make short talks from his train along the way south, however, and may also deliver one or two addresses on particular subjects before March 4.

Tonight Marion is to celebrate formally his election to the presidency and several hundred people from other cities are expected to join in the occasion. There will be all the noise and red fire that his loyal neighbors and friends can produce and many special features to give the Harding front porch and lawn one final baptism of campaign glory.

PARIS PRAISE FOR HARDING
PARIS, Nov. 4.—Newspapers of this city praise Senator Harding's personality and credit he has always asserted great sympathy for France.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 36c.

AT PUBLIC AUCTION

NEXT SATURDAY, NOV. 6, AT 3 O'CLOCK SHARP

I will sell at public auction on the premises at 32 Essex avenue, (Ross avenue being between Sixth and Seventh avenues, off Mammoth road), the following described property:

The house has four rooms upstairs, bath and two toilets, good hall room and a small piazza. The first floor has four rooms, two pantries, hot and cold water connections, a good front hall entrance with two back doors. The cellar is a good dry one. The house has just been painted and papered throughout and is now in good condition.

Now, then, here is a good opportunity for some one to own a good house at their own price, situated near good neighbors, near car line, with a nice high elevation and a fine view, overlooking the city.

The lot contains 2167 square feet of land, a small space for a garden.

Terms of sale: $500 required as soon as struck off. In all probability, at least 50 per cent. of the purchase money can remain upon mortgage. All inquiries must be made at the office of the auctioneer.

E. GASTON CAMPBELL, Auctioneer.
